

Vigilance group arrests suspected police robbers

TWO serving policemen robbery suspects arrested by State, on Sunday. in the town.
were among the armed vigilance group in Iwo, Osun This led to some protest The suspects were immediately taken to the custody of the police including the policemen who are attached to the police division in the town.

For two months, armed robbers terrorised the town, killing and maiming people and the police watched helplessly, although a curfew was imposed.

But the vigilance group swung into action which culminated in Sunday's arrests.

