

2-year-old boy killed in Delta

A two-year-old boy, Ochuko Enamotor, has been killed in a scuffle between his mother, Mrs. Ejiro Enamotor, and her neighbour at Oria-Abraka, Ethiope East Local Government Area of Delta State.

Also, the police have arrested five persons in connection with the killing of an inspector of police and a constable during the attack on Owa-Oyibo Police Station, near Agbor.

The information was contained in the crime diary released to our correspondent by the Police Public Relations Officer, Delta State Police Command, Miss. Olabisi Okuwobi, on Tuesday.

The teenager, according to the report, died in a clash between his mother and a neighbour, simply identified as Theresa.

It was alleged that Theresa grabbed the boy and hit him on the ground many times.

The boy reportedly died on the way to the hospital while the suspect fled the community to escape arrest.
