

Robbers raid bank, kill girl

Niyi Odebode, Abeokuta

ANOTHER bank robbery, the fourth in three weeks, occurred on Wednesday, in Ogun State, claiming the life of a 17-year-old telephone female operator.

The incident occurred at the Union Bank, on Folagbade Street, Ijebu-Ode.

The bank was attacked by a seven-man robbery gang.

Although the Police Public Relations Officer in the state, Mr. Olufemi Awoyale, said the robbery was not successful, eyewitnesses said the hoodlums carted away bags of money.

Narrating how the incident occurred, eyewitnesses said the robbers, who arrived at the bank around 1 pm, locked the banking hall and the gates.

The eyewitnesses stated that the hoodlums were in the bank for 30 minutes.

The robbers reportedly harassed the bank officials and customers.

They were said to have carted away millions of naira, which were loaded in two bags.