

Teacher beats student to death

A mob on Thursday attacked the Government Technical College, New Bussa, Niger State, following the death of a student, Ibrahim Gana, allegedly beaten by a teacher of the school.

The mob raided the school's staff room, where they damaged chairs, tables and louvres and also visited the teacher's house where his television, VCD recorder and other personal belongings were destroyed.

Gana, shortly after being flogged by one of the teachers of the school over an undisclosed offence, our correspondent gathered, became unconscious and was rushed to the New Bussa General Hospital for treatment.