

Two student cult members feared dead

Yemi Dalemo, Ijebu-Ode

TWO suspected cult members of the Tai Solarin University of Education, Ijebu-Ode, Ogun State, were on Tuesday night feared dead after a clash between two rival groups at the Imowo area of the town.

Our correspondent gathered that the clash was a reprisal attack following an earlier fight between the groups that left one student dead at the Ejinrin Road base of one of the groups last week.

The attack, according to the investigation, was first noticed by some transporters at the Lagos Motor Park when the students in their bus made some suspicious moves around the area.

The attack took place at Imowo area between 7.30pm and 8pm.

During the clash, dangerous weapons, including sophisticated guns, were said to have been used by the groups, while the residents of the area were thrown into pandemonium during the operation.