A lorry driver, whose identity could not be ascertained, was allegedly killed by some policemen at Apongbon area of Lagos on Thursday night.

The policemen suspected to be from Ebute Ero Police Station reportedly fled and abandoned their patrol van marked PF4958 LA at the scene.

An eyewitness told our correspondent that sympathisers who milled round the victim could do nothing since his mobile telephone could not be found on him.

The corpse of the lorry driver was still in the vehicle with registration number XN 236 KSF as at 9:30pm on Thursday.

Attempts to speak with police authorities in Lagos on the matter were unsuccessful as the command's spokesman, Mr. Frank Mba, did not pick his calls.
