

Three feared dead in auto crash

THREE people were feared dead while 11 others sustained injuries on Tuesday during a multiple accident involving four vehicles on Ijebu-Ode-Ago-Iwoye-Ibadan road.

The accident, according to Ijebu Zonal Commander of the Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Agency, Mr. Ajibade Adekunle, occurred when a tipper had a head on collision with a bus conveying the students of Olabisi Onabanjo University from Ijebu Ode to Ago-Iwoye.

He said the tipper was trying to avoid a broken down vehicle at a corner at Oke Eri when it collided with the student's bus.

Two other vehicles also ran into the vehicle before they somersaulted into a ditch.

One of the occupants of the vehicle, Miss Justina Chidioze, said she was coming from Ikorodu to the university to collect her call-up letter for the National Youth Service Corps scheme but express gratitude to God for being alive.

Dr.                      Muyideen Muhammed, who attended to the victims at the State Hospital, Ijebu-Ode, said 11 victims were brought to the hospital about 1pm, comprising of six students and five non-students.

---