FOUR men suspected to be members of a six-man armed gang that attempted to rob a house at Majek, opposite a hotel located off the Lekki-Epe Expressway on Sunday died during a gun duel with policemen from Ajah Police Station.

Our correspondent learnt on Monday that during the crossfire with the policemen, one of the suspects died on the spot while others escaped with bullet wounds.

But a few hours after the encounter, the remains of the three other suspects were recovered from a bush near
