MEN of the Ogun State Police Command have arrested a man, Olusola Osodirin, for allegedly killing a woman, Idayat Adewale, in her bedroom in Imagbon, Ijebu Ode Local Government Area of the state.

The incident occurred on Friday.

The suspect, was said to have crept into the bedroom of the mother of three after using a razor blade to cut the window net and stabbed her to death.

The deceased's husband, Mr. Matthew Adewale, told our correspondent that he was at work when he was informed of the murder of his wife.

He said, "I once helped the boy to secure a job but he was later dismissed due to his unwholesome practices."

He said there was a misunderstanding between his wife and the suspect but he prevented neighbours from beating him up.

Adewale added that he never imagined that the suspect would return to kill his wife.

The command's Public Relations Officer, Mr. Muiyiwa Adejobi, told our correspondent on the telephone that the suspect had been transferred to the command headquarters; Elewera in Abeokuta.

Adejobi said investigations had already commenced and that the suspect would soon be charged to court for murder.
