Auto accident kills 16 in Niger

By Agency Reporter, Published: Friday, 12 Mar 2010

At least sixteen persons lost their lives on Thursday in an auto accident along Mokwa-New Bussa Road, in Niger State.

The victims include five male, eight female and three babies, while 14 others sustained serious injuries in the accident that occurred around mid-day on Thursday.

The three babies that lost their lives in the crash are all girls.

Our Correspondent gathered that the accident which involved a Bedford with registration number; XA 816 SRP occurred along the New Bussa-Mokwa road, immediately after Ibbi village.

The Federal Road Safety Commission Sector Commander, Niger state, Mr. Emmanuel Abe, who confirmed the accident in an interview with our Correspondent in Minna on Friday, attributed it to excessive speeding and over loading.
