Two murder suspects, Kazeem Oladele, 30, and Kehinde Alabi, 27, have been remanded in prison custody by an Osogbo Magistrate's Court.

The two suspects were said to have killed one Dauda Odejayi, on March 5, 2010, at Akese farmland in Okinni area of Ede magisterial district.

The police had arraigned the accused persons on a three-count charge of murder, conspiracy and assault.

The police also claimed that Odejayi died as a result of internal head injury he sustained when he was assaulted by Oladele and Alabi.

Odejayi, according to the charge sheet, died on March 9, 2010.

But when the charge was read to the accused, they pleaded 'not guilty.'

The police prosecutor, Mr. Oladoye Joshua, opposed the bail application on the grounds that murder offence attracted capital punishment.

The magistrate, Mr. Olalekan Ijiyode, refused to grant bail to the suspects and adjourned the case till May 3, 2010.

He also directed that the suspects should be remanded in prison custody till the next adjourned date.
