UNKNOWN gunmen on Sunday stormed Ebenezer Anglican Church in Ibesikpo Asutan

Local Government Area of Akwa Ibom State and shot dead a chieftain of Peoples Democratic Party, Chief Paul Inyang.

The gunmen numbering about six were said to have went straight to the pulpit where the pastor was preaching and demanded for Inyang.

According to an eyewitness account, the assailants had arrived at the church premises around 11:30am and shot sporadically into the air to announce their presence at the environment.

Inyang, who followed the assailants outside the premises of the church, was said to have brought out his gun from his car and shot at the six-man gang.

The development lead to exchange of gun shots between the two groups but he (Inyang) was overpowered by the six-man gang and he was killed.

- Pls check your grammar: The gunmen numbering about six were said to have WENT straight to the pulpit where the pastor was preaching and demanded for Inyang. Haba! Pls watch it. There are many dead churches out there. Check out Acts of the Apostles Chapter 5 in the Bible and see what it would have been were it a Living church of the Living God. If someone now takes gun to the church, we are indeed in the perilous times. AS for the killers, they will soon be apprehended. Yes!
