

Jos: Five die in reprisal attack

Jude Owuamanam, Jos

AT least five persons were feared killed in a reprisal attack in Nasawara, Angwan and Dutse Uku during the burial of the victims of last Saturday's attack at Mazah on the outskirts of Jos.

Our correspondent gathered that emotions ran high as a funeral service for Rev. Nuhu Dawat, his wife and grandson was being held at Nasarawa Gwong.

Aggrieved youths of the area were said to have ambushed those returning from the funeral service and a free for all broke out.

Men of the Special Task Force guarding the area were said to have intervened. It was, however, not known how the victims met their death. Among the dead was said to be a community leader, whose name was not ascertained at press-time.

Meanwhile, there was tension in Jos on Wednesday as the prayer session for the clergyman and his wife who were killed in last Saturday's recent attack on Mazah in Jos North Local Government Area of Plateau State.
