One person was reportedly shot dead at Udo in Ovia North East Local Government Area of Edo State on Wednesday during the conduct of the primaries of the Action Congress of Nigeria.

THE PUNCH learnt that suspected thugs fired shots into the air shortly after voting materials arrived at the venue of the primary election in the area.

Results from the primaries showed that the Speaker of the state house of assembly, Mr. Bright Omokhodion, and five other members won in their various constituencies.

The fate of flamboyant member of the House of Representatives, Mr. Patrick Obahiagbon, could not be ascertained at press-time as results showed that his main rival, Rasaq Bello-Osagie, defeated him in Ward Six of Oredo Federal Constituency.

Obahiagbon won in three wards while a third aspirant, Osaretin Edosomwan, won in two wards. The Secretary to the State Government, Mr. Pally Iriase, secured the ticket to contest the April election in Owan Federal Constituency.

Comments :

- Patrick obahiagbon is wasting his time, the nation assembly is not his fathers, property so he should not expect only him to be , the one that will be elected to to go back again. why he was there ,what was his contribution to the development of edo state. he was only there to speak grammars that can not be found in the dictionary thank,
