THREE persons including a policeman were shot dead by a group of armed robbers who attacked a Hilux van belonging to a private company.

The hoodlums were said to have attacked the vehicle on Trans-Amadi Road in Port Harcourt on Wednesday and carted away over N50m belonging to the company.

State Police Public Relations Officer, Dr. Rita Inoma-Abbey, who confirmed the incident, said the driver of the vehicle and the accountant of the company were shot in the head, living them with no chance to survive.

Inoma-Abbey explained that the blue Hilux vehicle, which was moving without a number, was transferring money to a bank.

She stated that the traffic jam on in the area within the time of the incident might have paved the way for the robbers to succeed.

"The incident happened at Waja in Trans-Amadi where they are doing construction work. The traffic jam on the road may have made the armed robbers to succeed.

Inoma-Abbey added that investigation into the incident was on with a view to apprehending those behind the dastardly act.

The revolution dead end

Were this not our season of politics, our attention would be fixed on the cobbled streets of Cairo...

On this year's Eyo festival

Where are the progressives?
