One of the injured victims of the road accident involving some Peoples Democratic Party supporters who were travelling to attend Niger State Governor, Dr Babangida Aliyu's campaign rally in Lapai, is dead.

The accident had earlier claimed one party supporter.

The Director-General of the governor's campaign organisation, Mallam Tanko Beji, told journalists in Agaie on Thursday that the first victim died on the spot, while the second victim died at Minna General Hospital.

He said the party paid for the funeral expenses of the two victims and would also foot the medical bill of the three other supporters currently receiving treatment at the hospital.

He said the governor would personally condole with the families of the victims on Saturday after his campaign tour of some areas.
