

- SHOWBIZ
- DATING
- TECH
- SPORTS
- MARKET
- CONTACT

Five killed in Jos

- Posted by News Updates on July 21, 2011 at 2:22am in ↑
- Back to Nigeria Crime News News

By Jude Owuamanam Thursday, 21 Jul 2011

Five people have been confirmed dead in a new wave of viol capital.

Welcome To Gbooza!

Thank you for visiting our website. Enjoy our contents, sign up for conversations and daily email news broadcasts. For free product listings, visit Market Square. Thanks. Gbooza! Team

OK

Recommended

Translate

Recent posts

Share

Join Chat

Join Chat

some Christian and Muslim youths at Angwan Rukuba area of Jos North Local Government area of the state around 7pm on Wednesday.

Our correspondent gathered that one Dahiru Musa was invited by an unidentified man to repair his door for him, but the man ended up being killed.

This was said to have angered some Muslims youths, who mobilised for a reprisal. In the process, it led to a free for all.

Media Officer of the Special Task Force, Captain Ekeocha, who confirmed the development said soldiers were immediately deployed in the area.

He added that normalcy had been restored, but did not, however, indicate if any arrest had been made.

via Punch

~~Iran shows U.N. official all nuclear sites: envoy~~

INEC faults faction, wants Accord Party stakeholders' meeting

US says Libyan chemical, nuclear material secure

Pakistani police deny kidnapped American freed

Recommended

Translate

Recent posts

Share

Welcome To Gbooza!

Thank you for visiting our website. Enjoy our contents, sign up for conversations and daily email news broadcasts. For free product listings, visit Market Square. Thanks. Gbooza! Team

OK

Join Chat

Join Chat