

Crash kills one

THE driver of a mini-truck, laden with diesel, lost his life on Thursday morning after ramming into container bearing vehicle.

It was learnt that the accident occurred along the Oworonsoki Expressway around 1am.

An eyewitness, who identified himself as Mr. Kabiawu Babajide, said the truck bearing the container, parked on the side of the road, which the tanker driver did not see.

He said, "Around 1am a blue and white tanker, with number plate OYO-XC 468 MNY, collided with a container truck parked between Car Wash Bus Stop and Ifako Bus Stop, Oworonsoki.

"Immediately the accident happened, the container truck driver quickly drove off," he said.
