

Briefly*Three killed in Ogun

THE subdued crisis in the Ogun State chapter of the National Union of Road Transport Workers erupted on Tuesday as no fewer than three persons were killed during a clash between rival factions in Ijebu-Ode.

During the clash, one Gbenga Odubona (a.k.a. Ebonyi) and two innocent persons were reportedly killed.

It was learnt that the violence started about 1pm when a group of union members, armed with dangerous weapons, stormed the Epe Garage in the town, shooting indiscriminately.

It was gathered that the clash was not unconnected with the supremacy battle for the control of motor parks in Ijebu-Ode.

The state Police Public Relations Officer, Mr. Muiyiwa Adejobi, confirmed the killings, saying the police command had already commenced investigation into the incident.

Sovereign

Niyi Odebode, Emmanuel Obe and Akinwale Aboluwade

THE Action Congress of Nigeria and the Congress for Progressive Change have renewed their opposition to the Sovereign Wealth Fund, describing it as illegal.

The two opposition parties on Tuesday urged state governors to resist

