Briefly Robbers kill policemen

THERE was pandemonium in the Oshodi area of Lagos on Wednesday afternoon as armed robbers and policemen engaged in a gun duel.

It was learnt that in the afternoon, some armed men attacked Thermocool office on Eyitayo street and were about to make an escape when policemen in the area confronted them.

It was gathered that a gun battle ensued between the policemen and armed robbers resulting in the death of about two policemen and one armed robber.

Our correspondent learnt from reliable Police sources that three other policemen sustained gun shot wounds while a passerby was hit by a stray bullet.

The Lagos State Police Public Relations Officer, Mr. Samuel Jinadu confirmed the incident but said only one policeman was killed.

"On Wednesday afternoon Police received a distress call that robbers were in action at Thermocool and they immediately swung into action.

"In the process, at least one policeman was killed while three others policemen sustained gun shot wounds.

"A passerby was hit by stray bullet, while one of the armed robbers was killed in the gun battle.
