OPC member kills Etisalat employee over N10 toll

February 29, 2012 by Eniola Akinkuotu 68 Comments

A suspected member of the Odua Peoples Congress known by the pseudonym "Ultimate" on Monday allegedly killed an employee of Etisalat, Chukwuma Eze, in the Ejigbo area of Lagos State during an argument over N10 toll.

PUNCH Metro learnt that N10 toll was collected by the OPC members at a footbridge that links Ejigbo with Ajao Estate.

It was gathered that the deceased told the collectors that he had only N1, 000 denominations with him and offered it to one of the collectors who asked him to come back for his balance.

Eze was said to have agreed but was shocked when on his return a female member of the group insisted that the deceased did not give N1,000 to the collectors.

The telecoms employee was said to have been angered by the denial resulting in a fight between him and the female member of the group.

Sensing that the female member of the group could not match Eze's strength, "Ultimate," was said to have brought out an object suspected to be charm and hit the telecoms employee with it on the chest.

Eze, who is to marry in April, reportedly slumped and died on the spot.

It was learnt that immediately words filtered in that Eze had died, his kinsmen in the area carried out a reprisal and attacked some members of the OPC found at the footbridge.

A source told PUNCH Metro that in the ensuing pandemonium, a member of the OPC was also killed, while some motorcycles and a generator belonging to members of the group were vandalised.

The spokesperson for the state police command, Mr. Joseph Jaiyeoba, who spoke to our correspondent on the telephone confirmed the incident but said facts about the incident were still sketchy.

He said, "One Chukwuma Eze was allegedly killed by some people collecting money at a footbridge but we cannot say for sure if the collectors are members of the OPC or the local government revenue collectors.

"The incident caused a stir as some friends of the deceased confronted and fought with the suspects.

"The details of what exactly transpired are still sketchy because the incident occurred at night but another corpse, identified as one Sumonu, was also found at Ajao Estate later. We (Police) do not know if his death is related to Eze's killing."

The issue is, the Police know the facts surrounding the case, the problem is they are not ready to state the facts because those guys are working for the so called Oba Moruf of Ejigbo. Those thugs that killed the guy are his boys collecting tolls for him. The problem started when the Oba and his Chief noticed that, the tolls the originator of the foot bridge was raking daily was more than #50,000 daily. That was what prompted the Oba to bring those thugs to the Ejigbo end of the footbridge to collect the money. The police are shying

Abey, I live in Ejigbo, I cross that bridge everyday to work, I saw the corpse of the thug that was killed in reprisal at close range, that night, the bridge was burning at the two ends.

I can confirm what you said about the Oba and his thugs. It is a fact. the man, Oba Moruf is extremly fetish, people die when he does Oro festival. His boys at the Ejigbo end of the bridge are very violent.

After the killing of the etisalat boy, one of the murders in a bid to escape, he jumped into the canal, but a brave young man follow him, pulled him out and gave him a taste of his own pill.

The Oba of Ejigbo is destroying that settlement.

punch news paper, journalist, reporters & members of the public should be very careful in the way they alleged any killing in the public that involve charms to O.P.C killing, O.P.C dont kill innocent people am very close to them their mission is far from killing innocent peopple, they are trained milliant prepared for war, though they involves in various forms of charm, their activities can be curbed when they are reported to their local govt chairman, because law discipline is always their watchward, i will suggest the case should be left for the police to investigate the issues.

In Nigeria, police will never know anything. How come a gainfully employed man would be killed just like that by people who have no value for human lives. It boil down to what we are saying about regional terrorist groups, who are OPC members and why are they collecting toll on a bridge. Did OPC build the bridge, it is so sad that a young man about to marry in April could just be killed callously like that. For once, police should tract down this idiot called ultimate and his gang of armed robbers for justice to be done.

So the Oba Moruf of Ejigbo should be called for questioning for the law enforcement agents to get to the root of the matter and again the guy who was formerly collecting the the toll should also be brought to picture to aascertain the truth of the matter.

BJ February 29, 2012 at 9:21 am

I'm one of those that use that footbridge, and I must confess that those opc boys there are very terreble people, despite the fact that they always collect their fare, they harrase users of the bridge a lot. The Oba of Ejigbo sent them there so he can and should be able to fish them out. The police in Ajao

Estate knows most of those boys so if they really want to do their job they can get them arrested and have them prosecuted. The Chairman of Landlords association of Ino Nwosu street Ajao Estate too can give meaningful information that could link to the arrest of these boys, I say this because they employed some of those opc boys to guide that area. These opc boys even threaten people with their guns at night. I would have love to point them but the police will not help, who knows what they might do to me as the Oba of Ejigbo is involve, and the Lagos state Government too is indirectly involve as they collect money from them through the local government. Odumuso Olajide is a bad Nigerian, people like him are the problem of this country. We all know that 85% of opc are illiterate, 95% are thugs (area boys). Does opc have any meaningful recruiting system? No. Any area boy can join opc, there are so many of them in my area. Fela said it, "Animal wan give us human right". How can a group of area boys play the role security in our society? Our leaders should be ashamed of themselves because all these things does't happen in the western world where most of them like to travel to when they seek a nice time out. Oba Almoruf of Ejigbo, Oba Shekoni Elemo (Bale, now turn Oba), and finally the DPO of Ajao Estate, and also the DPO of Oke Afa/Ejigbo know how to get to the bottom of this matter if they really want to but they will hide it. I wish I could say more but I will rest my case here.

The realist definition of the concept of terrorism is any act that results to fear,injury and death wether deliberately or not is an act of terrorism. BH in the North East,MEND in the South South,MASSOB in the South East, and OPC in the South West are all terrorist organizations. It is unfortunate that the society celebrate this criminals and terrorists. So sad that the likes of Gani Adams even has a chieftancy tittle. This terrorist are backed by their various state government and traditional rulers for their own parochial interest. It is true that the OPC indulge themselves in the use of voodoo powers in caring out their nefarious activities. Unfortunately because the media is mainly controlled by people of the South West,atrocities commited by this criminals are not usually reported. Rest In Peace my brother.

terrorist group. They are not out there killing people. Massob is a non violent group agitating for a soveriegn state of Biafra, they have been humilitated, jailed, mocked even by their own igbo brothers but have never bombed anywhere or caused lost of innocent lives. Please let's give them respect they diserve and not align them with criminals.

Our lives are being threatened every single day, the useless govt isn't doing anything about it. If our Govt really cared for us able bodied men and women won't be at a foot bridge collecting 10 naira.

And please our Nigerian police it's so cliche to keep confirming incidents and not facts.. what are you hiding??? You definitely know abt this incident.

Why is it that people are quick to jump into conclusion over OPC membership. OPC is only a soci-cultural organisation that has men and women of impeccable records as its members.

It should not be linked with these riff-raffs, nobodies, street urchins (alright sir), operating illegally using its name. It is wrong to assume that OPC is having a militant wing- no, it has not, its just a socio-cultural as i first mentioned, so people, disabuse your mind over this myth, its not. Members of the organisation are fine decent men and women, and not these toe rags that parade themselves in several guises to tarnish its name. Please be weary of them and just be on red alert.

The issue on the ground is purely homicide (murder), and police should wade in to make some arrest that could lead to conviction.

Please dont let anybody use the name of the organisation to exort money or others from you. And second, nobody is authorised to carry out any of the police functions, like arrest or awarding punishment. It is only court that can award punishment, and not even the police. Police is just to make arrest and arraign before the court an accused.

Anybody accosted in the night should not believe he or she was stopped by an OPC member, but just a vigilantee group or night" Meghads" watch-nights, doing their normal routine. The name ODUA PEOPLES CONGRESS is not to be used for criminal purposes, for it is illegal to function as police when not recognised by the law. OPC belongs to Yoruba land and Yoruba people are not "the police" so, why should anybody believe a person committing crime is its member. No they are not.

If you encounter any such situation, try and call on the nearby police or phone for a possible back-up immediately. They are impostors, dont answer them, just pretend as if you are with them, but call on police if possible, and if not possible to call for help, just give them whatever they want if you have it, and then go to the police to report. Dont leave it too late so that arrest could be made.

THANK YOU

I am a yoruba guy but more importantly i am a NIGERIAN..... A Nation where criminals and low lives are supreme. They sit at the table of kings. I have always find it disturbing that the Person of the head of this Criminal group OPC "Chief" Gani Adams sit and dine with top govt officials and Traditional rulers in the land.....

He was culpable in the mass murder that took place @ Mile 12 some years back yet he is being celebrated by the ever religion, ethnocentric bigots in our land..........

Suffice to say that every part of the nation is under siege from Bakassi boys, Egbesu Boys, Mend, BH and so many other religious movement in the North that are not prominent or reported like the BH.

The Power of the Commander In Chief is strong but of what use is such power in the hand of a coward! President Obasanjo demonstrated how much power is vested in that office only if you can use it effectively.....THAT IS WHAT IS MISSING...... LEADERSHIP!

TILL WE GET IT, I AM AFRAID WE ALL ARE

NEXT??????.....

NOT TO WORRY, WE ARE STRONG, BRAVE, INTELLIGENT AND RESILIENT PEOPLE WHEN WE WANT TO BE; THUS WHEN WE ARE READY WE WILL GET THE RIGHT KIND OF LEADERSHIP WE NEED...

What kind of rubbish is this? Are we sure we want to continue to build a Nigeria we all can be proud of to call our country? Why should a graduate, whom his parents and society spent so much to nurture and on who so much hope is placed, lose his life to rubbish like this? Is the police unaware of the illegal toll collection? Is Lagos state Government not aware, or they just condoned it to appease their partrymen One of these days, this country will just snap. And that would be it for everybody.

the truth is that we have a country with a misplaced priority where anything goes. it is a lawless country where people take laws into their hands. someone was talking about justice as if it exists. Justice in Nigeria is a question of struggle –

The rich/strong get what they can, the poor and weak suffer what they cannot.
