Traders clash in Onitsha over drivers' killing

February 9, 2012 by Agency reporter 7 Comments

Some violence was recorded in Onitsha, Anambra State on Thursday as traders clashed over the alleged killing of a bus driver by policemen.

Details of the alleged killing were sketchy but traders were said to have lit bonfires at some points in the commercial city.

Some Igbo traders allegedly attacked their Hausa counterparts over rumours that the policeman who shot the driver was from the North.

However, calm was later restored.

More details later.
