Father of three killed by gunmen buried in Lagos

March 12, 2012 by Eniola Akinkuotu 65 Comments

Odunayo Oniyide, a 41-year-old employee of Joined Pomat Ltd., was on February 29, 2012, killed by gunmen in Ayobo, Lagos State.

PUNCH Metro learnt that the deceased was on his way home when he was accosted by the men.

A friend of the deceased, who craved anonymity, told our correspondent that the incident occurred in the deceased's neighbourhood

He said, "Odunayo was on his way home from work around 8:30pm and had stopped on Bada Balogun Street to buy food for his two-month-old baby, Solomon, when hoodlums numbering about four, accosted him and entered into his car.

"One of the hoodlums took control of the steering wheel while others entered into another car and followed closely behind."

He said although he was not at the scene of the crime, some residents who witnessed what happened immediately raised the alarm and drew the attention of some vigilantes in the area.

Our source said, "Some members of the Oodua Peoples

Congress immediately chased after the vehicle and even broke the rear glass of the Sports Utility Vehicle which the hoodlums had come with.

“But their efforts proved abortive as the hoodlums began shooting in the air to scare people.”

It was learnt that the wife of the deceased, Olusola, became worried when her husband was not at home, a long time after he had called to inform her he was on his way.

The next day Odunayo’s corpse was found in a ditch in a nearby town.

Our source said, “Odunayo’s corpse was discovered at Itele area of Ogun State, about 12km from where he had been abducted the previous night. His face was swollen and he had bruises all over his body.

“He had a gunshot wound on his leg and he seemed to have been strangled. Also, his Identity card was gripped tightly in his hand.”

Our correspondent learnt that the vehicle of the deceased, a Toyota Avensis, was later located – via a tracking device – in Benin Republic.

It was gathered that policemen attached to the Ipaja Division, Lagos, as well as Itele Division, Ogun, were both working to arrest the culprits.

Meanwhile, the deceased was on Friday buried at his residence at Ayobo after a funeral service at St. Andrews Anglican Church, Ipaja.

The Officiating Minister, Venerable Dele Okunnuga, urged all to live right before God and prayed against untimely death for the children of the deceased.

“Forty-one is not an old age and Odunayo’s untimely death is not a thing of joy as he was killed during his prime. My prayer is that God consoles his family and protect them from danger and untimely death,” he said.

The children of the deceased, Titobiloluwa, Temilade, Solomon, his wife, Olusola, friends and relatives attended the funeral.

The elder sister of the deceased, however, rained curses on his killers.

She said amid tears, “My brother was an innocent soul who was brutally murdered by men of the underworld. He was snatched from a loving wife and three little children including a two-month-old who will never grow to know his father.

“May it never be well with those who killed Odunayo, may his killers never know peace, may they die in the same manner in which they killed Odunayo, and may sorrow forever be their lot.”

The spokesperson for the Lagos State Police Command, Mr. Joseph Jaiyeoba, could not immediately confirm the incident to our correspondent but his Ogun State counterpart, Mr. Muiyiwa Adejobi, said Odunayo was killed in Lagos but his corpse was found in Ogun State.

He said, “The deceased was robbed at Oko-Oba area of Lagos State. His corpse was recovered at Ogun State. But according to investigations, he was shot elsewhere because there were no traces of blood at the scene where his corpse was recovered in Ogun State.

“His vehicle has still not been recovered. The investigation will be a collaborative one between both Ogun and Lagos Police because although the robbery took place within the Lagos jurisdiction, his corpse was found within the Ogun jurisdiction.”

So it's Jonathan that caused his death. lol. Don't blame everything on the government. Ask yourself what you have done to prevent crime in your neighborhood. Have you ever reported any suspicious person to the police? Have you ever reported any yahoo boy to EFCC? We all see these criminals around us and do nothing. Forgetting that even if they don't harm us, they will definitely harm others. I'm sure you will point fingers at Jonathan if your wife has a miscarriage. lol

Its only that it is too late to turn the clock backward, I would have suggested we had a fresh election to choose another government, as this bunch did not really worth it at all- from the Presidency to the least in the government – the councillor.

When you called yourself a govt and you cannot provide adequate infrastructure of economy and security, then I see no reason why you can continue to pose as our government with our mandate !

May the soul of the gentleman rest in prefect peace ,amen. And the blame of his death to hang on the government, both the state and the federal govt.

This is a lesson for us, that in 2015, we need to resist PDP and look for alternative govt.

PDP is not a political party meant to rule but there to loot !

FOOLS .

• Omooba Ayekotito March 12, 2012 at 7:23 am

What a tragic loss! May the soul of this innocent; gentle man rest in perfect peace in the bosom of Our Almighty Creator. Amen. May the Lord also give all his family members (both nuclear and extended), other loved ones and friends the fortitude to bear the irreparable loss. Amen.

It is very, very sad indeed to be reading this type of news about our beloved nation (Nigeria)almost on a daily basis . The men of the Nigeria Police will torture and kill people (both the accused and the innocent ones) in their custody extra-judicially, Boko Haram will senselessly detonate their bombs and armed robbers/assassins will also perpetrate their own evil acts. May god save and protect us all. Amen.

Its high time all Nigerians rise up and tell all our governments from federal to the local government level that enough of this wastage of innocent lives. Let's ask those in positions of authority what they are using their monthly security votes for.

A time will come when all these hoodlooms will start attacking these office holders and their families, then their bulletproof cars and security men will come to nothing. Its very unfortunate that we as a people are just degenerating in our social/moral values on a daily basis. With all these insecurity of lives and properties, we will just be compounding our state of poverty because no wise foreign or local investor will do business in an atmosphere devoid of peace.

Its very unfortunate that some hudlooms will have the temerity to attack and kill an innocent person at 8.30 pm. For God's sake, where is the government? Is government civic duties to its citizen not the guaranteeing of lives and properties?

Now this is happening in ACN-controlled Lagos State where the area boys reign supreme, if it is in a PDP-controlled state, I am very sure that their Publicity Secretary (Lai Muhammed),Asiwaju (awon area boys of Lagos) Bola Tinubu and his puppet (Malam Rauf Aregbesola), would have been heard the loudest.

And to you the men of the Nigerian Police, please learn to police Nigeria properly and stop passing bucks every now and then. The administative lines are meant to enhance smooth operations and are not for showing " a

Not-in-my-backyard” “or its- not- our own-problem” type of attitude”. The victim is a Nigerian and part of his fundamental right is adequate protection on Nigerian soils. This is 21st Century, all these archiac mentality are supposed to be discarded in the museum.QED!

Blame the govt and not the party ok. Security is to do with the executive positioning and not those institution by which they come to represent. PDP is a party, ACN is also one, they are different from each actor acting as the executive, so for now, Fashola and Jonathan have the blames being our executive- i dont know whether i make any sense here ?

May his soul rest in peace. But i have to say this; our govt, ranging from Federal to Local, is a total failure in the area of SECURITY. What are the policemen in Ayobo doing? There are two police stations in Ayobo. Were they sleeping when this activity was taking place? They only station themselves on the road to collect money, but not for security reason. May God protect us.

What a waste of life. Why can't the government give more power and better training to the OPC? I'm, sure that they (OPC) would have been able to stop these so called animals who killed the guy if they had good vehicles, radios which some of these defunct police officers have, but will kindly tell you that you are on your own when they are called to a crime scene. The government will not do anything to the security of the country because they don't know nothing about security, people management, not to talk about the management of a nation. Nigeria is now comparable to the likes of Afghanistan, Iraq, Mexico.....SHAME!

nigeria is among the worst in the area of security and infrastructure base, everything happen so easily without meaningful explanation. then we start trading accusation blaming police as if they are spiritual being, come to think of it why a metropolitan city like lagos will not have traffic camera and other security surveillance device mounted at various points like ayobo/ipaja. government in various capacity have neglected their primary duty of safe guiding life and properties but capitalizing on looting and amassing illegal wealth for themselves. they should stop using police in covering up their inefficiencies but rather, they should repositioned the police force by equipping them with a world class technology device so that they can live up to the expectation of policing effectively.

What a pathetic incident! May his gentle soul rest in the bosom of the Lord. Who is responsible for his untimely death? Is it Govt.,Friend, Family member or Self? Who knows? nobody except God. He who is all-knowing shall judge against the culprit. For those shifting the blame on our purposeless government, it seems to be you are just beating the dead horse. We all know that we do not have government that mean well for its citizenry in this part of the globe, given the series of cold-blooded killings of innocent souls every now and then which arises from the dastardly acts of Boko Haram, Militants, Police forces, Hoodlums name it.

I believe self-defence is the lasting solution to our respective problems in this country. Each individual needs to equip himself /herself either spiritually, metaphysically or otherwise just to defend yourself and not to harm your neighbour.

Imagine when the hoodlum entered the deceased" car, and on hearing a single word from the deceased, he (the hoodlum) become powerless and numb. Hence the need for self-defence.

Part of the areas where we have been adopting self-defence strategy, in the face of the govt. neglect of its responsibility to us, is the use of generator and other related electricity-generating devices to drive life activities. And lot more.

Or what type of music are we going to beat on our drum ?

Let us all be vigilant...

What Nigeria need is what SHE used to have. DEATH BY FIRING SQUARD TO THIEFS AND ROBBERS! WETHER YOU LOOT THE TREASURY OR STOLE FROM ANOTHER MAN/WOMAN – YOU SHOULD BE SUBJECTED TO THE SAME CRUEL PURNISHMENT YOU DEALT TO YOUR VICTIMS.

CRIME DOESN'T PAY – BUT IF YOU COMMIT ONE –
BE PREPARED TO PAY FOR IT

LAWS ARE IMPLEMENTED AND ENACTED TO DETER
CRAZY PEOPLE FROM DOING STUPID THINGS.
THE MASSESS SHOULD FORCE THEIR LAW MAKERS TO CONSIDER BRINGING BACK THE “DEATH BY FIRING SUARD”.
