Gunmen kill 10, injure five in Southern Kaduna community

March 17, 2012 by Segun Olatunji, Kaduna

After a few weeks of respite, suspected gunmen raided some Southern Kaduna villages on Thursday night, killing 10 persons, including a pastor, in Kufara community, Chikun Local Government Area of the state.

Five other residents of the community, which is about three hours' drive from Kujama, the LG headquarters, were also seriously injured in the attack.

Witnesses said the gunmen, numbering about 20, descended on three villages in Kufara community at about 10pm and continued their onslaught until the early hours of Friday.

The chairman of Chikun LGA, Mr. Auta Mamman Busa, who appeared visibly shocked and traumatised by the incident, declined comment.

A witness, Sunday Amos, who claimed to have escaped the attack, said the gunmen suspected to be Fulani herdsman, shot indiscriminately at the villagers and at the same time set many houses on fire as residents fled.

"The gunmen were over 20 in number. They arrived at the first village at about 10 pm yesterday (Thursday). They started shooting and killing people.

"They burnt houses and moved to the next village, where they also shot people and destroyed houses and other properties. At the next village, they attacked, killed Pastor Innocent Chukwuemeka Mari of the Assemblies of God Church in Kufara in the presence of his wife and children. His wife was also shot and they only left when they thought she had died. They razed the church building," Amos said.

Our correspondent learnt that the five persons injured during the attack had since been admitted at the Ahmadu Bello University Teaching Hospital, Shika, Zaria, for treatment.

Kaduna State Police Public Relations Officer, Aminu Lawan, confirmed the incident.

Lawan, a deputy superintendent of police, added that policemen had been deployed in the community.

All in the name of appeasing their god and religion. Spilling the blood of the Ibos yet again because they are Christians. We call it one nation and carry on as usual because life is abundantly cheap. There is a sense of inertia and lack of resolve. What can anyone do? The Presidency and PDP are concerned with brinksmanship as their bandwagon rolls on. The children are left tormented as their idol is slain right in front of them. Which of us fathers would wish this savage end?

The so called Northern Elders wont find lasting solution to these killings. Instead, they will gather and discuss how to wrest political power from another region and how to reap where they did not sow. None of these elders has been bold enough to say the truth about the root cause of the problems in the north which is an open secret_ the hausa/fulani people are the problems in the north. The so called northern stakeholders should be bold to call the hausa/fulani people to order and warn them to change their born-to-rule mentality and superiority complex. Another big lie these people are busy spreading is that the crisis in the north is not religious. If it has no religious undertone, why are people slaughtered along religious lines? Treating a sickness with false diagnosis will not solve the problem and the patient will certainly die.

• Jonathan Oladeji March 17, 2012 at 4:31 am anybody that kills with sword shall definitely die by sword. and the wicked dont want one man, one gun in nigeria. what a pity? killing innocent souls always. infact i am tired of this rubbish. when will nigeria gather her brains together and work out the modest way of improving the standard of living of the masses and taking cogent step in curbing the rituals in our midst. fulani should be dealth with the government and it is because none of them have been brought to justice, thats d reason the step up their murderous acts.

i will not hesitate to call on government to step up and find lasting solution to the animals in human shape (fulanis) and make nigeria a better place to live.

Gone... oh gone were the days in Nigeria when life was sacred as God made it when at the news of death only once in a long while, it makes one shiver in utter awe. But today what do we have???? Death everywhere, anytime, everyday, and anyhow. People kill and are killed with impunity and boldly get away with it. A group of people can wake up anytime, attack a village and or anywhere, freely kill innocent people just for pleasure and boldly beat their chest openly declare that they did it and dare anyone to challenge them. Most painfully, they get away with it only to repeat it again and again!!!!!! This is Nigeria for you where nlife now means nothing. This is the giant of Africa now revels in destroying itself. It is most like a dream, yet it is real. With all of this in mind, I now asked you my fellow citizens, is Nigeria really one nation still bound in freedom, peace and unity?????

Dr. Okon Bassey, Germany March 17, 2012 at 2:01 pm

For every innocent citizen of this country killed by the Hausa/Fulani terrorists the proponents of a one united Nigeria are to blame for it. We cannot have peace and unity in this country so long as we have members of the tin pot religion of peace running the show and dominating every institution in this country. There are yet to be an outpouring of outrage all over the country over the continued cold blooded murder of innocent Christians in the North recently and on daily basis. Since the Nigerian Security Forces dominated by the Hausa/Fulani muslims are thus compromised and therefore unwilling to protect Christians in the North, our Southern Leader should help evacuate Southerners from yonder. The Igbo Leaders in particular should immediately order all Igbos still in the North to relocate to the South. There are enough rooms for them in South. It is more beautiful in the South than the dry and dusty arid North. Our Igbo cousins have paid enough price for the sake of one Nigeria. It is on record that the Igbos have since 1945 been bearing the brunts of Hausa/Fulani barbaric slaughters of Christians in the North. If the Federal Government can't protect us Christian from the barbaric muslims, then the international community should be called for an S.O.S. It is already a curse to be a Christian in Northern Nigeria. The incipient genocide going on yonder must be brought to an end. It about time we go our separate ways.

its becoming interesting, Christians and Jews plans to destabilize Islam through all the means they created, media , its manifesting and its evidence in the comment of some Nigerians. Christians are killing Christians, bombing their own church, creating irrelevant videos and images just because of fear of Islam dominating the world.and am not too surprise because there is no other civilization in the world that can challenge western civilization except Islam.Any small issue you tag it to Islam. you can Google about how Islam is dominating the world, you will be shock how Europeans and Americans are converting to Islam and see how some of them we soon become an Islamic nations. thats their fear and thats why you and your pastors are using every means possible to destabilize Islamic nations and name. think and think, read and digest widely, don't think through you legs, use your head because there is no excuse for ignorance. time will tell

I know this if off topic but I'm looking into starting my own blog and was curious what all is required to get setup? I'm assuming having a blog like yours would cost a pretty penny? I'm not very web smart so I'm not 100% certain. Any suggestions or advice would be greatly appreciated. Thanks
