Agiliti, Mile 12, Lagos, erupted in violence that lasted for hours on Monday as some Hausa youths clashed with their Yoruba counterparts.

PUNCH Metro learnt that the clash, which started around 7am, began when some Hausa youths allegedly attempted to dump the corpse of a man they had reportedly slaughtered in the Maidan River. ←

A man, who declined to give his name, told our correspondent that, "This morning, we were not far from the river when we saw the Hausa youths trying to dump a corpse in the river. We immediately accosted them and demanded to know where they got it from and what happened to the man. The youths told us he was caught during a robbery. ←

"The body showed that the man had been brutally beaten. It was noticed that he had been slaughtered too. So, we asked them why they killed him and why did they not hand him over to the police if he was a robber.

“Before we know it, the whole area had been roused and we had been overwhelmed by the Hausa youths. We had to leave the scene after some scuffle.”

The youth told our correspondent that the Hausa residents who stayed behind later burnt all motorcycles in sight.

When our correspondent got to the scene, a large crowd of youths, who were speaking Hausa, were seen destroying shops and kiosks on three streets in the area.

A police helicopter hovered in the sky, while nine police patrol vehicles and a Rapid Response Squad's Armoured Personnel Carrier were stationed at the scene, but this did not deter the youth from destroying shops.

Three streets; Nuhu Oluwo, Oniyanrin and Adeyeye, were completely taken over by the Hausa youth who wielded clubs, pipes and machetes and other weapons while they ransacked every shop on the streets.

Some of them broke into a shop, pulled down the door and carried away two air conditioners they found inside.

Some of the youth also attempt to pull down the roof of the shops.

Our correspondent noticed that they had earlier broken into other shops on the streets. Other youths were seen grabbing loafs of bread in a shop they had broken into.

However, some older Hausa men were seen appealing to the youth to stop the violence.

A youth who brought out an amulet and wore it on his arm, was told to pocket it, while another man, Alhaji Gambo Limani, slapped a youth who broke a bottle on the ground and wielded it as a weapon.

When our correspondent later spoke to Limani, he said, “I had to caution them because most of these youths are hoodlums. They would blow the problem beyond proportion.

“I really don’t know the basis for this whole crisis because I just got back from Sokoto this morning. My main concern is to ensure they don’t cause crisis in this area.”

When our correspondent asked Limani about the whereabouts of the Sarkin Hausa (head of the Hausa community) of the area, he said the Sarkin had travelled.

Our correspondent reports that Oniyarin Street was completely deserted and the majority of the residents locked themselves up in their residences.

When asked why the area was deserted, a youth said, “These people (Hausa men) are many in this area. They inhabit most of the houses here. Anybody who has his life to protect should not attempt to go close to that area.”

Our correspondent watched from a safe distance as the rampaging youths smashed the windscreen of a bus in the presence of the policemen who made no effort to stop them.

The youths spoke in Hausa, occasionally pointing their sticks at the policemen to dare them.

The Deputy Commissioner of Police in charge of operations in the state, Mr. Tunde Sobulo, later came to the scene and dispersed the youth. He addressed the policemen and gave them directives on how to man the area.

When our correspondent attempted to speak with him, he simply said, “This is operation. I don’t have any comment to make now.”

But the spokesperson of the Lagos State Police Command, Mr. Joseph Jaiyeoba, who spoke with our correspondent on the telephone, said the police were being cautious because the clash was between two ethnic groups.

Jayeoba said, “The police got a report early this morning about a corpse of a man that was allegedly killed in Oniyanrin area of Mile 12. Policemen were quickly drafted to the area to remove the corpse. The clash was due to perenial accusations between the Yoruba and Hausa residents.

“In any case, the DCP operations and the area commander have been there to restore peace. The area commander has also invited the heads of the two ethnic groups in the area and all other stakeholders to resolve the issue. Right now the area is calm.”

I think the government needs to look into this because these northerners have to understand that the power of life and death is not in their hands. They have brought this boko haram culture down to Lagos and they should not be allowed to walk. Mile 12 has become an enclave for these Hausa guys and if nothing is done to checkmate this, I fear the worst might happen. If Yorubas in the North had killed one Hausa guy, it would have been worse than this. I wonder why Yorubas are so docile. Where are the OPC when u need them?

KUNLE and co, why do u all derive pleasure in attaching violence with islam, islam is the religion while a muslim is he who practice islam, so everybody can claim to be a muslim, it doesn't necessarily mean coz u pray 5 times daily or simply coz ur name is mohammed, Abubakar, zainab, Aliyu that u would be regarded as a true muslim. am sure even christianity as a whole has people who hide under the canopy of christianity in order to exploit people, in order to pauperise their unsuspecting citizens and so on, but what matters most, if read in a newspaper where a girl was raped by a pastor, but that doesn't mean christianity isn't a good religion coz it preaches peace, forgiveness, to love your brother what u love yourself. what ever u did (bad things) in the name of christianity wouldn't change the fact that christianity is a sound religion coz of its teachings. so, i can see no reason why islam is always attached with terrorism, this terrorists organization such as the Alqa'eda network, boko haram and so on are just hiding under the canopy of islam, coz the islam i know wouldn't permit anyone to take a life, being him a muslim or a non muslim. and plssssss note this: JIHAD means fighting in the cause of GOD, this fighting doesn't necessarily mean to wage a war on non muslim, the 1st and strongest jihad is knowing ur GOD and worshipping HIM faithfully and truthfully. It only calls for a jihad, when ur religion is under attack, meaning defending ur religion but not attacking other religion. a true muslim wouldn't take a life. so, i urge u all to stop being naive, do some research yourselves and know what islam is all about.the sun does not shine on one person alone.we are all in it together.play ur part to secure the nation instead of fuelin the fire @Kunle, I agree again with you. This is not about Salami and the stolen mandates by your brothers. The Hausa phenomenon will be very difficult to curtain in Lagos. 70% of Okada riders in Lagos are these Boko Harams. The government needs to stop them – ban okada and send these people, that have no value for life, back to their bases. I am very sorry but the truth is these group of Nigerians find it very difficult to integrate and live among civilized people. Its their lot and no one could help them.

Ola, we have to teach these pigs a lesson before they get used to acting like that in Lagos. As if it were Zamfara. They should leave and go back to their area. We are a civilised people. We do not slaughter innocent people like goats and hide their corpses in the river.

Did I hear you say OPC, why did the Yoruba people round not go and re-group and go back to face the Hausa hoodlum. They have confirmed they own the land from north to south west, because it's only a fool that can be beaten in his homestead. They cannot do this in Igbo-land, believe it or not.

So why are we making mouths that if Boko-Haram dare us, we shall show them.

My people, this is not good enough.

Shame, shame on us all !

Bye.

@Abimbola Kumapayi, You are right my brother. They Yorubas around the area should have confronted the Hausa Boko Haram without asking for OPC. If this has happened to the Niger Delta people or even the Igbos, in their home town, only God would have known what the outcome would have been. Any way, this is exactly what happened to the Yorubas during June 12, that a man like Abiola was dressed like a woman. A hunter became the hunted. The late Dim Emeka Ojukwu, Eze Igbo Gburugburu, may his soul rest in peace for the love he showed to his people wish they reciprocated a million times, said to his Igbo people, if the aggressor comes to you, in Igboland, don't even think twice before killing him, and if they attack you while you live in their home town, run as far as you can, until you see a place called Biafra, gthen you are home and would be protected. Yorubas don't have liver for fight. Even the Alaye (Area boys) are even scared to face real fight. It's a yoruba thing, they only make noise, and are only known for their Owanbe.

Yorubas are not docile, they think twice before taking action so that an impulsive wrong action will not be taken. But when Yoruba eventually swing into action, you know it, no retreat, no surrender, we don't lose in battle.

We will teach these animals a lesson of their lives. I am yoruba and this is a promise I am making to all yoruba people. In fact, this will flush them out hurriedly from Lagos. Since they cannot live in peace with us in our land, they must face hell at all cost.

Or you think if it were the Boko Boys on the rampage, our police will stay around to mediate, no, they will dodge and later appear to do “garagara”. So we yorubas are the weakest link in the country. Its not about using sense, but simply of being too lazy or coward. We are simply full of making mouth.

The hausa-fulani people should sit down and find the genesis of there problems, is it the culture, or there religion or there percussiveness that their neighbours are weak. The violent mentality of this particular tribe needs to be addressed. Why do you take pleasure in killing people, in ghana its between fulani and other tribe, in nigeria same. The question now is can we continue to leave as a nation with this kind of violence activity from

What you all need to understand is that yoruba people will never engage in violence without proper justification and they will not start an ethnic-based fight as long as reason can still apply, but one thing am sure of is the fact that once yorubas decide to fight, they make sure they are ready to carry the fight to a logical conclusion e.g. Ife/Modakeke, and if it comes to that, I doubt there's little the police can do to maintain the peace.

Its a shame so many brainless Nigerians making stupid comments here! calling OPC coward seriously reveal how terrible Nigeria is now.... The simple question here is if we all agreed that no criminal must be given jungle justice like the said victim of those stone age Hausas, must OPC use the same jungle justice to make a point? Two fouts can never make a right. If these Hausa hoodlums are fool OPC can not join them like that. One thing that is very sure is that OPC would definitely carried out investigation before they strike and you will all weep for them when OPC strike. Having said that, I will never support such strike simply because it make no sense adding petrol to already volatile fire. Southerners are already been kill on daily basis in Northern region, any counter attack would only worsen the situation. Make God help Nigerians to think better.

It is a good thing that the Yoruba youths showed constraints, that's a pure sign of civility however this issue may not be over although I hope it is, and before you pass any judgment of inaction by these Yoruba youths, you should realize that there are over 8 Million Yorubas residing in Lagos, any over kill by these Yoruba youths or OPC could spark a larger ethnic cleansing in Nigeria as a whole, this is a situation known to the police, let the police do their jobs.

This is a serious issue that must be handled. We the south west must now be careful because gradually the hausa people are about to invoke the spirit of Boko haram into lagos. We got to be vigilant. Let us even imagine that if not because of there evil agenda, why did they went on destroying properties just because of minor clash that could be settled by investigating about who killed that person without an crises. WE HAVE TO KEEP OUR EYES WIDE OPENED

This type of thing is impossible in Hausa Land or Ibo Land from non Native. Yoruba wake up .Already President Jonathan said in Abeokuta that 38% of population of Lagos and Ogun are non- Yoruba. And hence,the President wanted to insert Residency Clause into the Seven Years Tenure he was trying to introduce. So that every Jack and Harry can contest to be a Governor in Lagos,Ogun and indeed in Yoruba Land. Yoruba Egalitarian way ,will pose problem for them in future. Ninety five percent of Armed Robbery and Kidnapping in Yoruba Land were non Yoruba. Yoruba Ronu .

We must know that while we are making a hail of noise in the South West, the Hausas are preparing for war, ever ready and very worrisome is that Lagos is overwhelm with Hausas becos many Yorubas and especially their Leaders are Muslims. It will very difficult for a Muslim leader to stop a Muslim brother from destroying Lagos. If any riot or war should happen now, Lagos will be must affected due to the present of Hausas and most especially Muslim majority. I have taken my time to read all comments I tend to differ on the issues of OPC fighting for the yorubas for now I will advice the police force to do a serious investigations and arrest those hoodlum fomenting trouble with impunity in Lagos , they needed to understand that this is not kaduna or kano where impunity prevails and I will advice the police to be serious about this otherwise the next round wont be this simple. Equally people living in Lagos villages where these guys are plenty like house fly should raise their security to red alert I tell you the boko haram issues in Lagos, the implementation will be different. Today we have thousands of Hausa labourers in communities and equally thousands of Hausa okada riders everywhere we should be prepared its the best way to deal with recalcitrant ethnic group always involved in one fight or the other. Hausa vs Tiv, Hausa vs Igbo, Hausa vs Berom, Hausa vs Yoruba etc its a way of life for them to shed blood we should all be aware and be prepared

Almost everybody is drumming war. War pay no one any good. "It is good to be brave and powerful, but sometimes it is better to be a coward. For we stand at the coward's man compound to point at ruins where the brave man use to live" OPC and the Yorubas of Lagos state do not allow instigators to push you to start war in a foolish way. Investigate the matter well before you react. They said, the Hausa head is not at home, may be when he comes, some apology will be made, and he will be able to fish out the perpetrators of this evil act and call his subjects to order.

Lagos State Government should also put enough security measure into all the Hausa dwelling areas so as to check future re-occurrence of this kind of evil act. Yorubas are peace loving people, still maintain some level of peace! Thanks.

I see an agenda being fast implemented; Boko Haram's out to Islamise Nigeria, a move Babaginda initiated in his day as Head of State; majority of Islamic extremists are hausas, curiously enough these sects of people have consistently infiltrated other parts of the country by way of trade/commerce. They're already in possession of the North...the earlier the Southerners realize what is going on and rise to the occasion, they may all become slaves to Islam in their own country.

@Abimbola Kumapayi, You are right my brother.

They Yorubas around the area should have confronted the Hausa Boko Haram without asking for OPC. If this has happened to the Niger Delta people or even the Igbos, in their home town, only God would have known what the outcome would have been. Any way, this is exactly what happened to the Yorubas during June 12, that a man like Abiola was dressed like a woman. A hunter became the hunted. The late Dim Emeka Ojukwu, Eze Igbo Gburugburu, may his soul rest in peace for the love he showed to his people wish they reciprocated a million times, said to his Igbo people, if the aggressor comes to you, in Igboland, don't even think twice before killing him, and if they attack you while you live in their home town, run as far as you can, until you see a place called Biafra, gthen you are home and would be protected. Yorubas don't have liver for fight. Even the Alaye (Area boys) are even scared to face real fight. It's a yoruba thing, they only make noise, and are only known for their Owanbe.

Let us for one have course to ask Muslims what they contribute to the beauty of this world.

It is a common knowledge that successful scientific inventors like Benjamin Franklin, Albert Einstein, Isaac Newton, Maxwell etc were all Christians. Jews practicing Judaism, the third Abrahamic religion have stunned the world with a lot of scientific discoveries that helped mankind.

No single Muslim invented anything.

No single Islamic nation have made any scientific discovery that will help mankind.

No any Islamic nation has ever carried football world cup, rugby world, Olympic etc.

Despite the oil in the Arab nations, this region has remained under developed, with places like Afghanistan, Pakistan, , etc stricken with acute hunger and starvation. In Africa it is the same Somali, Niger, Chad, Sudan, Northern Nigeria etc.

Despite the implementation of sharia legal system in these regions, they have remained a region with so many cases of abuses, women suppression and deaths.

Europe, America and even South America have continued to prosper, without oil but simply manpower. Muslims in opposite are lazy, unorganized, wicked and fail to explore their human potentials instead exporting terrorism. They kill through Jihad and honoured killing(killing ones own blood relation) and blame everybody for their woes. They make noise that Islam is growing and fail to understand that the reason for their growth is because of marriage to up to four wives. How many people are ready to convert to their religion if not by birth? Those who want to leave the religion are threatened with death.

In Nigeria, the despite millions lost by the Igbos in 1967 war, despite abandoned property saga, despite maginalization, they have come out to show a good economic progress far more than the north. When u visit the north, once u see a Christian child and a muslim child u will differentiate between the two. The Christian children are clean, well kept, neat, educated and focused. In opposite the muslim children are dirty, unkept, looks abandoned, begging food and lack hope for the future. Is it not said in the bible that any man that fails to take care of his kids is worse than an unbeliever? How come they call other people unbelievers? In annoyance, God has unleashed all manner of ailments upon them because of their wickedness and supidity.

Some handless, some footless, Some leppers, some blind, some dumb etc. When will they learn their lessons?

This piece of episode is not meant to condemn Islam sentimentally, but we all have had cause to ask our muslim brothers questions like: WHAT HAVE YOU GOT TO OFFER THE WORLD THAT GOD CREATED AND ITS BEAUTY? DON'T YOU THINK YOU HAVE BECOME A SERIOUS DISSAPOINTMENT TO GOD?

Alec, for a study in “underdevelopment”, you need to do a study of the UAE. If you can’t get that far, try Libya or even Morocco. Why do you think all our thieving leaders are taking our monies over to those places to buy property? Even Abuja pales into insignificance against common Abu Dhabi. We can all point at somewhere bad to justify clad that certain areas are no good i.e. Queens in NY, Peckham in London, Spanish Town in Jamaica, Ajegunle in Lagos etc.

The world’s tallest building also happens to be in the Moslem world. The world’s oldest university also happens to be in the Maghreb. We can go on and on, but guess what, I am neither Hausa nor Muslim. There are good Moslems, Hausas and Fulanis just as there are bad ones; as in all tribes and color, but thankfully, the bad ones remain a minority.

We cannot condemn all Hausa / Fulani for being who they are, else we condemn ourselves too.

It is quite unfortunate, the whole thing started at Maiduguri like a child play, 2de, is a national issue. Where is Tinibu & his group ACN? If Jonathan has failed at the centre, is that how Fasola will also fail his loving people? Don't you know that the likes of Dangote, Dantata etc business will crumble if the pigs continue what they just started in Lagos? Pls, Fasola, do something with animals now or you resign. Lagos is no Kano or Maiduguri. If Ibb or Atiku that is sponsoring this 2 achieve their political greed, they will all die before 2015. Say Amin!

If Igbos are in deed what they claim they are, why have we not seen reprisal attacks in their lands? By the way who has always bootlicked Hausa? Look through all fulanis and hausas who have ruled Nigeria, who have always been their deputy? Igbos! Azikiwe was an hausa bootlicker, Ekweme, etc, etc. These are people who dont think before they act. Their brains are in their anus. Why did you think their god ran away during the civil war? After reading all comments previously posted by different people, I have come to the conclusion that there are some elements who want to incite a tribe against another tribe. You see what we are saying? Hausa youths wear black magic just to fight while it is totally unislamic, therefore I conclude that they are hoodlums as claimed by the police and not the polished ones among them. For the yorubas' reluctance to retaliate, it is as a result of their being educated and having much to lose from the clash. They have more hope for the future while their northern counterparts are otherwise because of their kleptomaniac leaders. A poverty-stricken race will readily pick up arms cos they have nothing to live for. The educated northerner will never kill at the slightest provocation and will maintain peace in most situations.

My people, no other race knows better than the yorubas when it comes to the outcome of wars because they had fought uncountable wars and have realized that wars only bring more tears and sorrow than anticipated. Besides, we are all humans and the moment we stop perceiving things from a tribal angle, the better things get.

PS: I will not fight any tribal war because it is stupid and usually started by bigots.

@ muhammad nuruddeen dadi, ...yeah right, what you have said is absolutely right. Sultan Saladin in the 12th Century agreed to allow Muslims, Christians and Jews to live side by side unhindered in their practice of religion, and it stayed so for over 800 years in the Jewish land. Ultimately, Islam has not preached “Jihad” as a form of violence, but it has been corrupted by demonised people. The yorubas have practiced this to a large extent, but their benevolence should not be taken for folly, because a reprisal would not be palatable to the “visitors”.

What would it have benefited you all if the fight continued and 10 additional Yoruba lives (well educated people) while 70 uncultured/uneducated Fulani/Hausa herdsmen were also lost? Who would have lost more? Don't you know that these Hausa/Fulani hardly have lineage? They start from Almajiri where their parents and relations throw them away and they may never know their relations again! You want to compare these people to Yoruba land where we train our children to level of responsibilities so that they can contribute to development of Nigeria and the world? robbers and prostitutes in our community are mostly these people. Does that mean christianity or people in the southern part of the country teaches armed robbery or prostitution? In fact go to Nigeria prisons even the ones in the north before you see one muslim inmate you would have counted at least ten christians. The same way if you compare the crime rates in the Islamic and Christian nations, you realise that there is far lower crime rates in the Islamic nations as compared to the Christian nations, I ask again does christianity teach crime? Today we have gay churches, with homosexuality spreading like wild fire in Christian nations and several Catholic priests being accused of sexually abusing more than fifty thousand children!! I ask again does christianity teach homosexuality? I know christianity is strongly against all these crimes so also is Islam against all these crimes committed by Muslims. “Our correspondent watched from a safe distance as the rampaging youths smashed the windscreen of a bus in the presence of the policemen who made no effort to stop them” this is a good one as for the police what did u expect frm a coward who can only intimidate harmless civilian.

That is by the way, i think there is more to this issue than what is being reported. as for those caling yoruba a cowards, its quite unfortunate dat dey only have eyes but can neva see or if dey see dey did not see clearly.if the yoruba has retaliated and it eventually degenerate to somefin else,av u ever put into consideration how many innocent soul will be wasted?how many even d soo called igbo dat will be in one way or d other afected either by death or somehow?there is a say dat “live today to fight tomorrow”. there is no doubt dat thing are falling apart in dis country and it will keep faling until we find a lasting solution to it by going our seperate way.it sound somehow,bt dat is d naked truth, come to think of it, there is no way we can continue living as a one nation when we quite know that we are not one, even in d south west dominated by yorubas we still have our differences despite d fact dat we speak same yoruba. has anybody ever deem it fit to find out what cause the problem in jos which is fast spreading all over the nation?let me say dis litle i heard of: in d inception jos was dominated by xtians, it was agreed dat xtian owns jos, due to d nature of xtinaity of peace nd love, dey acomodate muslims even sold land propert(ies) in d city to dem (muslims) neva think ot it dat it might boomerang,nd dis has been d main brain behind jos crisis over nd over.

back to d issue @ hand, i tink d state gov has a vital role to play, as it was simply put that most dis guys are tout, d state govt should find a lasting solution to d issue of tout in the city of lagos. d other days it was a tout with a etisalat workers,same pepu dat a calling yoruba a coward here today are the same one caling for the crucification of yoruba den. i tink dis realy show d extent of hatred each tribe has to one anoda which means dere is no way we can continue staying under one umbrella pretending as if noting is wrong.not as if separatng will solve d problems permanently but base on d fact dat ethnic issues has always been a major reason(s) behind several crisis and failure in d history of d country

In Lagos. If the Police are not capable of there job, they better quite, why will mallam harassing the the people and the in Lagos that the Police can not deal with them. Why are we accommodating them, set of cows that are not accommodating at all. LET THE GOVERNMENT TELL THIS BOKO HARAM CHILDREN THAT WE WILL NOT ACCOMMODATE THEM AT ALL IN THE WEST WITH ALL THIS THERE RUBBISH. YOU POLICE IF IT IS THE WEST THAT ARE FIGHTING, YOU WILL SHOOTING THEM, NOW COW ARE AT LARGE AGAIN, YOU CAN NOT SHOOT. LET IT BE CLEAR NIGERIA MUST BE DIVIDED, WE CAN NOT BE ONE.

Why not arrest the murderers, those who disturbed the peace and those that carried offensive weapons? Is it not a shame that the Northern Youths are building a very bad reputations for themselves? They cannot continue to take the law into their own hands, they must live by the rule of law. If they cannot live in peace, they can go back to the north. The Police boss should realize that it is not enough to settle the matter, without arresting and prosecution. The dead must get justice, and those who lost their daily lives must be compensated. Even if the man was a robber, they must learn not to take the law into their own hands, they should have handed the man over to the Police. We must live by the rule of law, not by the stupidity of some silly youths.

“The Hausa-Fulani has no ideals, no ambitions save such as sensual in character. He is a fatalist, spendthrift and a gambler. He is gravely immoral and is seriously diseased that he is a menace to any community to which he seeks to attach himself”.

- Lord Lugard in a Letter to his colleague, Walter H. Lang on September 25, 1918.

I think it rather unwise from the Hausa youths in this part of Lagos, at a time like this. A positive though, that the yoruba's or any other tribe haven't joined in so far.

But who gave them order to kill a robber, or they are acting on instruction of the police force? And no arrest was made for this murder, so dont you see there is something we need to weary about?

Abimbola,

Why do I get this strong feeling that you are not based in Nigeria and certainly not around Mile 12? Maybe, the Yorubas chose not to fight in this case because the deceased was a known thief. From the reading, the suggestion was that the Hausa Youths should have handed over the thief to the law rather than the slaughter. In effect, there was a reason not to simply and senselessly start fighting. Besides, would you be honest to say that if the this had been Yoruba, and caught by Yorubas, he would not have been roasted alive? Slaughtered or roasted, both are barbaric. Why do we have to blame the Hausa / Fulani people, call them names and call for an ethnic war for something we would have most likely done as well? Those who live in glass houses need throw no stones. Thank God, saner head among both Yoruba and Hausa leaders in the area prevailed rather than mindless orgy.

The earlier we see ourselves as one in this country regardless of where you come from, the better for us and this country. But for once, why are people from this particular region are this Barbaric in nature? A typical Hausa man will never go to police to report a case, never, he believe in a juggle jutice affairs why? Can't they change again? I think they need a complete orientations by way of education. For ilitriacy they said, is a desease.

There is no need to name those behind Boko Haram. We already know those who are bent in getting power by all means, they are financing Boko Haram to terrorise Jonathan and killing innocent Nigerian. I am rest assured that they will never get the power to rule Nigeria until they die. Jonathan still has second term to use, after that, it is the turn of the Igbos. The Yorubas and Hausa-Fulanis should not think of ruling Nigeria in the next 14 years. Jonathan still has one more term of 4 years to use after this term. The Igbos shall be having their turn of two terms of 8 years too. Hausas and Yorubas should go to sleep for now.
