Soldiers kill nine Boko Haram members in Kano

March 22, 2012 by Mustapha Salihu in Kano 143 Comments

The Joint Military Task Force in the early hours of Wednesday killed nine and arrested two suspected Boko Haram members who attacked Tudun Wada Local Government, Kano State.

The gunmen were said to be making attempts to escape after they used explosives to attack a police headquarters, the Divisional Police Officer and set fire to a nearby bank when soldiers struck.

The 3rd Brigade, Nigeria Army General Officer Commanding, Brig- Gen. Iliyasu Abba, said the JTF who received a distress call from the town raced to the area to confront the hoodlums, stopping them from carting away money from the bank.

Abba said, “We quickly mobilised our men to the scene and that was how we successfully got them. Two more gunmen were arrested.”

He showed the two arrested suspects and bodies of the dead to journalists put the weapons on display at the Bakavu Barracks, Kano.

The weapons included several pistols and AK-47 assault rifles, ammunition and police body armour, seized after the shootout.

“We blocked both ends of the roads to Tudun Wada and waited for the hoodlums, who came in three vehicles. We laid an ambush for them, seized the vehicle,” Reuters quoted the army chief as saying.

Abba advised the residents to always maintain safe distance during combat operation to avoid being hit by stray bullets.

He assured them that the JTF would respond to any distress call and restore peace to troubled areas in the North under threats from armed gangs.

JTF please clean, sweep, rub, clear, massacre, butcher, maim, destroy, kill-all, slaughter, rampage, scatter, and attack these islamo-facist fanatics off these palnet.

since the security is very poor and appalling, i have decided to gather my Afro-american and Latino-mexicano brothas and doawgs from the Bloods, Crips, Nortenos, Latin Kings (from mainly New York), and best (but dangerous of them all), MS-13 to form splinter groups and branches in Jos (to protect our christain brothas and sistas) and several Southern cties (they may also co-operate with OPC, MEND, and MASSOB) from these islamo-fanatics.
NOW THAT IS A STRONG REBEL GROUP ALLIANCE!!

NEWS Just in!!:

an Algerian man in Toulouse France is known to be a Islamo-fascist support and member of al-Qaeda who carried the bloody killing of several Jews in Toulese, France. he said he did this for almighty allah, the revenge of the "killings of palestinian brothers", and the banning of burkha last year in france (because of several islamic terrorists).

Also Kenyan Jets have slaughtered 73 al-Shabab fiighters.

Yea, the sad part is that among the dead at the Jewish school are three young Jewish children and a rabbi and three French anti-riot policemen.

@Donald: So did a guy burn a mosque in belgium last week killing the imam of the mosque or have you forgotten the guy that went on rampage in norway killing almost hundred people in an area where muslims have a high population? The devil can tempt anybody, it is only left for you to fall. Don't make it a tradition, posting provocative comments against any religion just because you are a free-thinker.

it is also very stupid and crazy for some people to call for dialogue with these faceless terrorists. let me tell you dialogue supporters that there is a difference btw Taliban and al-Qaeda. the Taliban is a government which were overthrown by the US forces in 2001; while the al-Qaeda is a terrorists group formed in 1988 which has no other agenda except to form an Islamic caliphate and overthrow the Saudi regime, so therefore they are termed a "terrorist organisation". so it will make sense to dialogue with the Taliban and make them understand that they have to support democracy; but the US have declared that al-Qaeda leaders such as Ayman al-Zawahiri, Abu Yahya al-Libi, Khalid al-Habib, Adnan el Shukrijumah, Mustafa Hamid, Saad Bin Laden (bin laden son), Hamza al-Jawfi, Matiur Rehman, Abu Khalil al-Madani, Fahd Mohammed Ahmed al-Quso, Adam Gadahn, Nasser Abdul Karim al-Wuhayshi, and Abou Mossab Abdelwadoud (Boko Haram facilitator) be CAPTURED DEAD OR ALIVE.....PERIOD!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

One of the most important way to tackle insecurity in Nigeria is to empower the youths with good jobs and develop them through technical and vocational skills that can enable them fend for themselves, but the government has turn a deaf ear to this issue and promote issues where their bags will be enriched, if they (government) like let them kill all the armed robbers and hoodlums in Nigeria today, many more will emerge tomorrow, its high time they change their mind from brutality, and face the real issue that makes the youths restive and cruel. But i must confess these men (Nigerian Leaders) are wicked and self centered they never care for the “future generation” they want to live now and in the future, if i am wrong what have any of them done for the youths to impact them positively. we youth are tired of these killings of “future leaders” let government start addressing these matters with sincerity cause we are disappointed on all the approaches used by the past and present govt. youths love peace, but there is no peace in an empty stomach.

○ Ahmed Musa March 22, 2012 at 12:35 am

I agree my brother. The core problem is lack of employment and lack of education. An educated society is the best prevention. Unfortunately Nigerian leaders, with a few exception, past and present are not serious about developing the nation. We have a country and a continent full of incompetent, corrupt, tribalistic and truly uneducated leaders and populations.

While I agree with you that there is no peace for the wicked, I have my reservations about our 'collective misplaced' calls for unmasking of the BH sponsors. Pls situate that call with the admission by Mr. President that his govt have been infiltrated by the dreaded sect and you will understand why we can never unmask the sponsors. What stops him from naming names or effecting some arrests if indeed he knows the sponsors? Until such a time in our nation when the people are allowed to choose their leaders without some faceless god fathers deciding for the whole country who our leaders should be, such criminal elements (of various description) will continue to hold us by the jugular. Can anyone bite the fingers that feeds him? (This is not suggesting that Mr President is a member, God forbid.)

Moreover, I beseech you to stop bragging that a northerner won't become the president soon because all the political parties whose decisions you can't influence, moreso from ghana, may unanimously make northerners their candidates. It happened with the westerners in 1999 and nobody had any other choice than to vote one of them in. Politicians care less about us so trust them not.

Who knows, may be the boko haram idiots feel they are ok development-wise. Or may be the sect feel Kano and indeed the North is overpopulated and they want a cheap and a crude method of reducing the population. It's a matter of choice. Leave the president out of this

Well done SSS! Good job! I am worried about all these insults in this forum: "Mumu", "Idiot", "Stupid", "Yeye man", "Fool"! This is Nigeria for you! In a civilised society, one seldom uses such words even if you disagree with somebody's view point. That you disagree with somebody's argument does not make that person is stupid person or foolish person. We are all different! You do not attack the person, but constructively criticise the logic behind the person's argument. You ask, is that valid or invalid? If it is not, it only means that you both have divergent views about the same issue, and that is expected.

Me, I like 9ja people oo, the only thing be say, my Piggen English don wowo! Please, let anybody wee sabi Piggen English well well tell me if I will pass my Piggen English exam coming soon! Abi I de blow grammar?

Darlington, if you have a brother in the north ask him the situation in the north, 90% of victims are northerners including the traditional rulers and if you live in a crisis area, u may fall a victim. On why our leaders are helpless is cos boko haram follows them 2 thier houses and kill them, if u could remember when d marketters arrested a boko member and hand them over 2 police, d following week boko retarliated by opening fire indiscriminately killing over 30.

By the time we finish the whole Boko-Boys, probably the evil boys that did not allow north to develop would have been eliminated. The event can take up to ten years depending on how fast our solders are. At any rate, thats a good figure for now, intestify more, purge corners and hide-out to fish them out, and please dont allow escapes and no casualties from your side. You all received military training, so avoid casualty, if possible. Maintain the confrontation with them, they are animals not to be spared.

Again, please do not blame Mr president for the Boko Haram, I think his trying is best to get rid of the idiot BH or are you saying Mr president himself should carry AK47 against BH ? Please do not bring politics on BH.

You that call yourself fela, you are not suppose to be among good people, if western education is sinful why are you using computer and other electronics? Why are u using phone in fact why are u drinking from pipe borne water it will be better if you can stop eating from dining and plate. I remember in the past when deeper life church founder told his fellow members not to watch and buy TV because it portrait sin, but today the founder himself is now preaching and spreading the words through TV and Radio. Please Boko Haram, if western education is sinful then do not allow your children to go to school and stop using what belongs or attached to western education.

@Akin and Rhomax Islam deserves what it is getting from the world today. Whatever a man sows he shall reap. I am telling you categorically now that islamic fundermentalists are fighting a lost battle. The way islam is getting unsavoury reputation globally shows that there is something wrong with. Even when a crime is committed by a non-muslim people swiftly attach it to a muslim. Why? Whatever goes up must come down. This will surely come to a terminal some day.
