

The poll was conducted through Short Message Service between February 13 and 19, 2012.

Cultists kill one

ONE person was feared dead on Sunday when two cult groups clashed in Ughelli, Delta State over who should come first in the order of protocol.

A flat belonging to a police officer, Jonathan Preye, was among properties burnt by the suspected cultists who invaded the community around 1am.

Men of the Delta Central Police Division, it was gathered, cordoned off No 4, Orubase Street, Ughelli, the scene of the incident.

Tempers were said to have flared when two rival cult leaders met at a birthday party held in Otovwiewwiere Street, off Okorodafe Street and were arguing with the master of ceremony over who should be accorded recognition first.