Theft: Mob kill four Uniport students

October 7, 2012 by CHUKWUDI AKASIKE and SUCCESS NWOGU 254 Comments

FOUR students of the University of Port Harcourt were on Friday lynched in Aluu Community, Ikwerre Local Government Area of Rivers State for allegedly stealing phones and laptops in an off campus hostel.

The students, who were identified as Lloyd, Tekena, Ugonna and Chidiaka, were beaten and later set ablaze by the mob suspected to be members of the community.

It was gathered that the community saw the situation as an opportunity to vent their anger on the students after being terrorised by armed robbers within the past three months.

Photographs of how the four suspects were killed were immediately placed on the social media, even as most commentators condemned the act and described it as jungle justice.

The State Police Public Relations Officer, Mr. Ben Ugwuegbulam, confirmed the incident and added that investigation into the murder of the students was ongoing.

“Nobody has the right to kill a fellow human being. We expected that the suspects should have been handed over to the police and not the jungle justice that was meted out to them (suspects),” he said.

Reacting to the incident, the UNIPORT’s Public Relations Officer, Dr. William Wodi, told SUNDAY PUNCH that he had yet to confirm if those killed by a mob were students of the institution.

Wodi explained that the incident took place in Aluu community, adding that the university had no jurisdiction over the area where the four persons were murdered.

In a related development, a member of the National Youths Service Corps serving in Kwara State and two other men (names withheld by the police) have been arrested for their alleged involvement in armed robbery.

The corps member was said to be serving at Ira, a town near Igbaja in Ifelodun Local Government Council of the state.

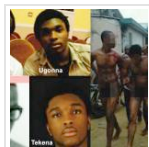

The three suspects were apprehended by the Kwara State Command of the Nigeria Police Force.

The Police Public Relations Officer, Kwara State, Mr. Olufemi Fabode, confirmed the arrests. He added that the Special Anti-Robbery Squad had commenced investigation into the incident.

The Kwara State Coordinator of the NYSC, Mrs. Ezinne Ezekwe, said she could not confirm the involvement of the corps member.

“I am still expecting the Commissioner of Police to brief me on the incident officially before I can make any comment,” she said.

In a society that so much premium is placed on material acquisitions, the strive for wealth will no doubt be inordinate ...

Or how best can you describe a society where students no longer think they have a bright future and the enjoyment of the present is all what they care about!!!

Our parents must definitely share part of this blame! Not only do most 'new generation' parents fail to inculcate essential values into their children, some also wittingly encourage their wards to go into crime!! Can we also forget how our society has been corrupted by the ostentatious display of stolen funds by corrupt politicians ? Hell no!!!

Until something urgent is done to achieve an egalitarian society, d number of students involved in armed robbery will continue to grow!!!

Well said. All these are by-products of our corrupt system, I blame the government especially the politicians for instituting corruption and creating undue hardship and negative change in our value system. There are no morals and values in the country any more. Nigeria should brace for more crimes from youths. The standards of universities in Nigeria are not even up to the standard of a good secondary school so it is not surprising that the universities are breeding criminals.

You 've said it all. But what i don't understand is the reason for this people taking laws into their hands by arresting, prosecuting, passing judgment and executing the judgment at the same time. Why don't they hand them over to the school authority or the police? All those involved should be made to face the full wrath of the law. What have they done to the bigger thieves who carted trillions of our naira into their foreign accounts? Is it because this they are not surrounded by security operatives?

■ Cytimann Chiahemba (@cytimann) October 8, 2012 at 1:08 am

You seem to be speaking from a practical experience. You robbed during your school days too, huh? That is if you ever went there. Perhaps, the registrar of Uniport should rather have asked you to identify the students, since you know it all. But listen, there is no category of people in which you wouldn't find thieves; students, workers, including that your shrine, so why are you attacking students? But what reasonable human beings are saying here is, it is wrong to take a fellow human's life. So this is not a proper avenue for your type to come and preach your holiness. You would one day be a parent, that is if you don't end up in a same sex marriage, and if you have children, the world would want to see how you would break their head and plant morals. But I repeat, the topic here is, those killings were shameful for theft in the 21st century, for any crime after all the real thieves are those whom you run naked to come and worship during electioneering process

■ Patrick October 9, 2012 at 6:28 pm

Akin, you assume it is true that the students were actually armed robbers? What is the evidence? whose laptops or phones? what weapon was found on them? and even if they were thieves! Where were the police? Please do not justify this brutality for any reason. It is evil to the brim.

Nigerian rulers should be very careful. Nigerians are turning on themselves out of frustration. Innocent people may be framed if this jungle justice continues unabated. I am scared for Nigerians. It is true that jungle justice is not accepted by the law @ the sme time lats consider one or two points. 1. for a thief to determine to still, he would have planned for 'if he is caught' he will not take it lightly with the owner by this time. many have died by the hand of armed robbers. 2. this although not vry good can speak to sense of others who are in the same business. BUT EVERY SIN/ INIQUITY IS STEALING AND MURDER INCLUSIVE IS ENGINEERED BY THE DEVIL WHO WANTS MAN TO KEEP ON DISOBEYING GOD. THE MAJOR SOLUTION IS NEWBIRTH

If you find out that the report is false then you can now blame the publishing firm. But otherwise, even if millions of your type refused to read punch, it has no negative effect on the paper. Obed you are wrong punch has done nothing bad in making an ordinary report of the incidence or creating an awareness of what goes wrong in our society. Infact I think punch is the only newspaper that should be commended in this direction. The others are busy reporting sweet lies that all is well in this country and those are the type that fits people like you. For your information the full detail in video is in youtube and other sites on the internet and it was not punch reporter that sent down those movie. My problem is that it is people like you who quickly jumps to conclusion without cross checking their opinion with fact that constituted 90% of the mob that carried out the lynching of the students. How many people among the mob were eye witness of the allegation levelled against them? I can swear that most of the people that carried out the lynching were merely acting on hearsay which is not good for dispensation of justice in any manner. This is why lynching is termed jungle justice because the evidence and proof of crime is overtaking by hearsay without any room for the accused to defend himself. I

Most commentator on these forum are ignorant of the fact that an arm robber is an arm robber also punishment is punishment. In those advance countries eg Saudi Arabia behead arm robber in the open if found guilty same in China. In the UK and US, the same sentence melted out for stealing computer is same sentence for stealing car. Is only in Nigeria the reverse is the order. A governor will steal billions of public funds an a court will set the person free but if it was a poor man he will be sent to jail expediently. Good example is Native Dr orji uzo kalu former governor of Abia state who is standing trial for stealing Abia state money. Five years on he is still a free man. To rob it in the face of ordinary Nigerian new, kalu want to be president of Nigeria. This same Kalu started stealing as a student. If kalu was killed then at University of Medugri, Abians wouldnt have been worse off today. So Nigerian lets pluck those armed robber students who use university campus to perfect the act of robbery. It will sound bad and ugly but that is the overuse truth.

Where armed robbers have field day; where public servants loot treasury and still come back to run for office and win.Where the people have completely lost faith in security forces and law enforcement agencies. This kind of anarchy, disorderliness, and barbaric act cannot be found wanting. No one has the right to take anyone's life; no matter what. And to think these guys were killed because of Cell phones and laptops, haba! There are bigger thieves like Bankole who stole Billions and the courts discharged him for wants of evidence. One may really not know the extent of damage and intimidation this community might've gone through in the hands of criminals before now. Their rage as we read is as a result of constant criminal activities that've not let the people find peace. If one have not been attacked, raped (sometimes they even kill their subjects) and subject an entire community to fear and intimidation, such might keep on blaming these people. However, jungle justice is'nt the best.

It is because of people like you that Nigeria will never change or improve in any way in terms of human and infrastructural development.

Stealing or any form of criminality is wrong and condemnable but a measured justice should have been rendered on the suspects.

Please peter2000, don't let your stupidity and emotions override your sense of judgement. I have been a victim of robbery and I have friends who lost loved ones in the hands of hoodlums but we all still believe that every crime should be given an appropriate punishment.

If you are in support of this killings by the mop then we Nigerians have to support Sharia Law and I tell that even in Sharia law, the boys wouldn't have been killed rather each of them will lose one arm.

In the case of the late suspects, they should not have been killed because they stole phones and laptops. What that Aluu Community did was just wrong and they should be held accountable.

A man in Lagos was passing by and some 3 boys started shouting Ole, ole ole(thief) before you know it they took the man and killed him, it was later gathered that the pple shouting ole were only joking for the guy to stop so that they will extort him for money.

That is why we av Polce, if u dont beleive in Police then go to all the police station in your area and set them ablaze.

These killings were barbaric, disturbing and I condemn them. Having said that, Jungle justice occurs when there is a failure or non-existent of Institutions of Justice. Just as those 4 young men were victims, so also are the Aluu community that for years have been terrorized with robberies, rapes and murders. From what I've read, there are minimum, 2 armed robbery attacks in that community every week, and the people live in absolute fear. I read somewhere that very recently a resident's home was attacked, his daughter was gang raped and the man was killed cos he didn't have enough money in the house. When people live with this kind of fear, and the police arrest and release when bribe is paid, what're the people supposed to do? When put in very harsh or difficult circumstances, you'd be surprised what human-beings will do, especially if the lives of their families in their communities are threatened. This story is not just about killing people for stealing; it's way deeper than that. Those vigilantes were taking out years of frustrations from armed attacks, rapes, killings all out on those 4 young men. I don't know if those young men were innocent or guilty of being cult members on a robbery assignment, but I see them, as well as the community that took their lives as victims of Nigeria's failed Justice System. It's human regardless of what part of the world you're from to seek justice, that's why it's important to avail the right avenue for it, if not, people will make their own avenue!

Who among those that killed them have not stolen or sinned before? One of the boys killed is the only son of the parents. These guys may have been at the wrong place, at the wrong time. People condemning the action of the Aluu community should first put themselves in the position of this community to see if they will not do the worst if it happens to them. These phone thieves have snuffed lives out of so many of their victims just because of ordinary phone as some people are saying they deserve not to be killed because of phone. Can we as well think what would have happened to the owners of those laptops and phones if they have refused to voluntarily surrender them to the hoodlums? When justice has failed where we suppose to seek redress for justice, i think the best way is to take laws to our hands to let the robbers know that when they go to such areas the chances of their survival is 50/50. Our constitution should be as well be ammended to allow every Nigerians have access to arms and amunitions to reduce the rate of terrorism in our society. This should also serve as a lesson to other students that their parents send to school to better their future but gets there and joined bad gang.

Will you pardon robbers and ask the police to prosecute them if they are caught?

I hate jungle justice and i hate robbers. Our youths have become too materialistic and our so-called leaders are the cause of this problem in Nigeria. well when we come in this kind of issue, we have to ask God to give us wisdom to judge this case as he gave Solomon. In Nigerian situation today, everybody are on his own run- run for the survive of the fetes.Bear it in mind that not everybody have the grace to endure. what am trying to say is that we should not take the raw into our hand no matter how situation take place.The Igwe should be inform and handover those boys to him or police than to kill them before any other things take place. Thief is not good but we human being sometime allowed God to judge then we to judge before God.What if God think the way we does, do you think that we well remain on earth today. Please apply wisdom in anything you are doing to avoid regrade at the end.Remember that everybody will judged according to his or her work on earth even as you comment here.Because some of people comment here show how they mind is in other peoples life.Omit it please so that God will give glory. my brothers i thank you all.

Both acts of the students- thieves and the mob are condemnable. It is a reflection of how little the society places value on human lives

Africa a big jungle.Colonisation,civilisation,modernisation could not develop the African mind.This is the only continent left behind in development & modern civilisation.Today no part of the world still does such a barbaric act called "jungle justice" but here we enjoy killing,maiming & burning our own people.No wonder every part of the world treats Afro esp. Nigeria like a piece of shit.Ppl who have no value for human life.Soon we other parts of the world are meeting they have to exclude some continents & countries like ours.

Condemnable, barbaric and crude..... Everyone deserves a fair trial and everyone saying they were innocent until proven guilty by a court of law. But every one isn't deemed innocent until proven guilty by a court of law. If you are found instantly, would anyone burn people to death.. These guys deserved to be prosecuted, with the chances that if they were indeed criminals, the names of other criminals they may be aligned with would have been known and arrested too. Such is the way civilised societies operate instead of allowing bloodlust rule. I can beat Mung chest and say, while those boys were being killed,some of their killers were busy stealing the valuables of bystanders who were watching.... I don't in anyway commend armed robbery or any social vice but jungle justice is a different matter. I don't believe in revenge. The killer should die if they did it was them THEY SHOULD BEGIN TO FEAR FOR THEIR LIVES... Revenge is coming.... Revenge is coming..

I weep for the youths in Ikwerre community.Punch have every right to report such story cos its a sad one.one of the boys was the only son of his mum i'm referring to Tekena who is a 100 level student. the fact of the story is that the boys killed belongs to a rival cult group who has fight with the dominant cult group in Uniport and they where caught while on a mission to kill a member of the dominant cult group both in Uniport and Rivers States which majority of the Ikwerre youth belongs to so they where caught. but also luck ran out of them when a female wrist watch was caught in one of the boys hand and a girl from the crowd identified it has her watch and said the same guy robbed her some days ago but believe me thats not enough reason for jungle justice. if they belong to the dominant cult group they wouldn't have been killed but at the same time i blame the boys for involving their selves in crime. students living off campus in Uniport now do so in fear as robbery is now a everyday affair with girls getting raped in most cases. i condemn this act and refer to it as been barbaric and also want people to know that they where not caught in the act of robbery but rather where on a cult mission and should have been handed over to the police.

I totally condemn the act of stealing and cultism but these boys do not deserve this gruesome death. Another version of the story states the cult head they wanted to overthrow shouted they were robbers and they were lynched. Okay, should the cult head also be lynched? Should all cultists in Rivers state because I know they exist not just within the Universities also be lynched?

Jungle justices is not acceptable and must be totally condemned by all right thinking citizens. But the security personnel should do more to convince all that they are up to the task, and that justices would not be turned upside down for money and personality recognition . Our judiciary should avoid delay tactics in their system, most of the lawyers and judges unnecessarily adjourn cases without any just cause, so people believe that if the is taken to court, it will take much time and later with money opposite is the expectation .

If University students are caught stealing, what hope then for our country. Sad episode really! University students are highly respectable persons worldwide, but not in Nigeria, where stealing of mobile phones and passing exams by what you can offer is the order of the day. Too bad really!

Where were the community Chieftains while this act was ongoing?

For this to have happened, it reflects the failure of the NPF as well as the Community Leaders.

This is Jungle Justice, the action is INHUMAN!

It is a “slap” on the face of the Legal System in the State and Nigeria at large.

What got me disturbed, is the fact that that "ordinary" men killed them like common rats and you could even hear someone in the background saying killed "make dem die". Really??? Some people said this happened as a result of our non-existent of Institutions of Justice, but does that replace our sense of humanity. I am shocked, short of words and perplexed with the brutal murder of 4 UNIPORT students.

Even if these boys were cultists and are guilty of stealing, the community vigilante has no right, no locus standi in law to conduct a trial, prosecute, judge and execute them. It is wrong within all ramifications. The action of the community vigilante is more disturbing because honestly, people should not take the laws into their hands without recourse to law enforcement no matter the level of provocation. If we all take laws into our hands it will be anarchy and chaos from our villages to Abuja.

Clearly, two wrongs will never make a right – whereas the allegation of stealing was the issue, again and again the community was hasty in decision and acted in great error. Yes these young men are dead but the executioners are not. The community vigilante should as a matter of urgency be brought to book.

It is so disturbing because it can be anyone, it can be anyone's son, brother, cousin, relative...mob action can happen to anyone including members of the community vigilante.

In the same vein, young men should be extremely careful in these bad times, yes...our ego is greatest problem. We should as a matter of fact be careful of association – na my man, guy escort me here, nwanne do this for me, guy make we run things, guy you dey slack – you be jew man, join me make we go, guy nothing they happen...because something fit happen after all !!!

my comment earlier concerning this topic clearly shows that i was very sad and heart broken to see these young guys been killed in such a gruesome manner, some people emailed me asking me to include what the authorities should do since these incident as already occurred, and some said in part of the mail that the Authorities might be clueless as to what to do next.

I thought to my self that it will really be cool if i bring some suggestion here, on who the authorities should begin investigation with , i guess the first person to question are the chiefs in that community, they appointed those vigilantee and the vililantee always report back to its masters, so my point is that the chiefs gave the go ahead ORDER.. so i believe the investigation should start from the chiefs.

I believe some people might disagree with me on that, but take for instance, for those who remembered the case of Charles Taylor, he was charged with murder, rape, turture, crime against humanity, the Point is that he was not the person carrying out such act but those he appointed to do so, so the law picked him first because he was in charge of that country giving the "ORDERS".

The investigation should begin with the oracle cheifs.

The Final Wishes of Alexander The Great I thought worthy to share more widely.....

Words to live by, please read to the end. The last wishes of Alexander the Great:

On his death bed, Alexander summoned his generals and told them his three ultimate wishes:

1. The best doctors should carry his coffin;
2. The wealth he has accumulated (money, gold, precious stones...) should be scattered along the procession to the cemetery, and
3. His hands should be let loose, hanging outside the coffin for all to see!!

One of his general who was surprised by these unusual requests asked Alexander to explain.

1. I want the best doctors to carry my coffin to demonstrate that, in the face of death, even the best doctors in the world have no power to heal;
2. I want the road to be covered with my treasure so that everybody sees that material wealth acquired on earth, stays on earth...

3. I want my hands to swing in the wind, so that people understand that we come to this world empty handed and we leave this world empty handed after the most precious treasure of all is exhausted, and that is TIME

4. We do not take to our grave any material wealth, although our good deeds can be our travelers' checks. TIME is our most precious treasure because it is LIMITED. We can produce more wealth, but we cannot produce more time.

facts October 7, 2012 at 5:17 pm

As mediamen we went on an investigative journalism and guess what; our findings was a painful reality of public deceit and impunity. The guys we gathered were not thieves but cultist on a mission to kill the leader of their cult group. These guys are from rich homes, two of them move on jeeps and they live on high brow rented apartments courtesy of parents. That hwever is by the way. The 5 boys who are members of a particular cult were incensed by the overbearing attitude of their cult leader and decided to topple his leadership by assasinating him. Unaware that the place was in the radar by some resolute vigilante boys following persistent handset theft and rape activities, five of them embarked on a journey around 3am with their axe and knife on hand attempting to gain entry into their targets abode. The target who is their cult leader was however smart enough to notice their presence and started screaming – 'thief, thief' which attracted the attention of the vigilante who consequently rounded them off. One out of the five cult guys escaped albeit with a gunshot wound he sustained from the vigilante while trying to escape. It was this 5th cult guy who escaped but later died in Agip that narrated the ordeal before he died. He gave us tip that they were set up as thieves instead of CULTIST on an assasination mission. Questions have continued to arise concerning things they claim was stolen. Those things were never found on them, meaning perhaps some persons who wanted them dead carefully orchestrated the plan even as all their confessions were waived. I agree Cultism itself is a social problem, but to take a life on the guise of what they did not do is injustice. Perhaps it's God's way of giving the cult leader another chance to renounce and embrace God, who knows he would have been the one dead had he not employed the false accusation alarm. I think all relevant investigative agencies shld come into this matter especially to unravel why some group of persons should defy police order to hand over a criminal. Don't get me wrong – for attempting to take a soul they deserve to be paid in their own coin but this should be done within the ambit of the law not unsubstantiated accusations etched in taken laws into our hand in the name of vigilante. If we recall, one of d major militia groups in Rivers state started off like a vigilante and we will not want a repetition of that. THANKS.

You mean the police never knew this was happening until these boys were lynched and later set alight? The video was terrible! We Nigerians are the reason why God is angry with us. 40 Students were massacred in a polytechnic and everybody was outraged. Now four others were lynched and roasted by the community that hosts Uniport, and people are cheering. All our policemen and policewomen are posted to guard VIPs and whole communities are not policed leaving jungle justice to take the order of the day. How may God forgive our authorities that let these to happen. I had stated a few days ago that there is a need for campus police on our universities and other institutions of higher learning because the age bracket of the undergraduate students in these institutions is that one finds the youth in all sorts of temptations, trials, etc. And sometimes they get into trouble. I was truly appaled by what I saw on: '4 Uniport students lynched' YouTube.

Reply Link Quote

Josh October 7, 2012 at 5:35 pm

This is very disturbing...the rationale behind this act is unjustifiable. What baffles me is that this was done by actual people. Those that actively participated in the lynching; are they not murderers????? How can an average citizen possess such skill and “ginger” to kill a fellow human being. Lets try to put ourselves in the shoes of the parents and family of these boys. Ohhhh!! the shock, grief and sorrow that they will have to go through. what a terrible way to loose a loved one; with gory pictures all over the internet. Even if they are labelled thieves or cultists, any right thinking person should have regarded them as youths that are going through a stage in life; they ought to be given a chance to defend themselves legitimately in a court of law, and if they end up being punished then the consequences will be equal to the crime. They will learn useful lessons that will help reshape them for the future. BUT THEIR LIVES WERE CUT SHORT.....NIGERIA!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!OUR PROBLEM IS ILLITERACY.

As an Alumnus of a Nigeria higher institution, I have seen, in person, the atrocities of cults around campuses; students and professors killed, bitten, raped, and robbed. Yet, I could not phantom the barbaric act where group of people, young, old, men, women just beat other humans to death. Do I call it crime against humanity or just been INDIFFERENT? Poverty, non sense of purpose, and no respect for rule of laws have made Nigerian youths now INDIFFERENT to humanity and what LIFE is. This is really becoming un-nigerian and our government should be held responsible. The parents need to sue the state, federal government and the University for not providing security for their children. Please Naija people, stop being indifferent to LIFE.

The facts are beginning to emerge that the four guys that were lynched over allegation of being laptop and mobile phones thieves were cultist falsely branded as thieves to satisfy their desire of an opposing cultist group. You see in Nigeria nobody is safe. The people are becoming so deluded that they can believe any evil and doubt any good. In the movie it is most painful to note that none of the people that participated in the gruesome murder of these guys can lay claim being eyewitness of the crime they were alleged to have committed. Such is the level the law and justice system of this country has descended that you can kill or maim anybody if only you have the propaganda machinery to deceive the public by labelling him as robber.

This evil tactics to destroy an enemy by false allegation is not new anywhere in the world. The people that hatched this plan should prepare for a reprisal trickster attack. Most Nigerians are being deceived by everything they hear. Infact how wicked burning a man like yourself on the basis of mere hearsay allegation which you have no means to verify.

Even in china and saudi arabia where there is zero tolerance for robbery this sordid and brutal killing of suspected criminals can never take place because there is government controlled police authorities. if this has happened in civilised country all the mob that participated would have by now be in cell helping the police to find out how the dead guys carried out the robbery of laptops and phones.

A sad and sorry country.Nigerians are a failed people. Everyday in Lagos and other parts people are been falsely accused,lynched and sometimes killed.Last month an old lady almost got killed in ajegunle after the bloodthirsty residents falsely accused her of kidnapping her own kids!Till date none of the criminals have been brought to book. Whether this guys are cultist or not we cannot be treating human beings like animals.It's more rewarding seeing your attackers been punished in the full glare of the public without any mistake of their guilt.The police should bring out the instigators and the hands that beat and killed these men.Their photos are there for the whole world to see so it shouldnt be difficult!

It clearly shows people from Niger Delta are clearly wicked and heartless people. Very barbaric animals. How can you kill your fellow human like that? its quite unforunute. The video of their death clearly shows the humans we have in Niger Delta. They are worse than Boko Haram. This is what they will be doing to people when they start having their state police with their useless governor fighting for state police. Is this how your people want to handle crime?

We shout online as if we have not seen criminals killed before.If those guys are cultists or robbers,who knows whether it's the spell and curse of their previous victims that brought them to instant judgement.

You the popular adage?

All days for the thief,one day for who.....?

So

Robbers,cultists,kidnappers,ritualists in Nigeria beware because jungle justice is here to do the work of a failed Nigerian judicial system.please dont expect me to sympathize with you when you carry the cross of your crimes .

Killing a fellow human being is too bad for us in this country. We do not need to take law into our hands. Even if we caught anyone stealing, it is lawful to hand such to the police and not killing them. Imagine how the families will feel watching the video of how their sons were killed. i wept for them, not bicos they are student but for the pain they feel seeing their own death. Their souls may not rest untill they destroy their killers. Police should not sleep on this matter but must find out the killers. I condol the families of the students killed.

Weda 10naira, 20 naira or any other thing from ur family, friends or even ur office? I am not for them for stealing, wat am against is the babaric, wicked n inhumane way they were killed witout being shown mercy. Couldnt the community pple have handed them over to the police?

Think of this, have we not been committing sins and yet God keeps forgiving us anytime we ask for forgiveness? What if God is to met out the same justice on human beigns any time we sin, who amongst us will walk alive on the face of the earth? Apparently no one, so please cut the crap abt justice.

And before anyone makes a condemning statement, do a check on ur own life so far and if u r witout sin, then condemn the students and applaud the jungle justice.
RUBBISH!!!!!!

It is unacceptable to take a life, no one deserves to die the way those boys did, guilty or not. The person that videoed that act could have also saved their lives by calling the police ,even though it is possible that they would not have gotten there on time. The brutality by those villagers was not a 5-minute ordeal. That person would not escape the wrath. There is so much evil in the Land and if it is treated with disregard, if we say the boys deserved it (imagine if God pays us back exactly what we deserved) and continue like nothing happend, gross darkness would cover this country. No matter what the community people say to defend their act of wickedness, they must answer to this crime. So much blood crying from the land, innocent or not?

- DU October 8, 2012 at 4:59 pm

I didn't even watch the video, but simply by reading some of the comments here, I am assured that there are many such people without hearts in this nation. How else can anyone learn of such a tragedy and see the heart-wrenching pictures of boys barely past their teens, begging for mercy, while a human beast bashes their skulls in with planks, and yet climb on their self-righteous soapboxes and declare in however roundabout a fashion, that the boys got what they deserved?

Has it even been confirmed that they stole? Were the "stolen" items recovered or the did person they stole from testify?

Now, the story is going around that they were "cultists" on a mission! Ha! cultists without weapons? Cultists who didn't rough up their target?

Flimsy excuses being flung about to justify the EVIL of this act!

Can you imagine the pain their families are going through? the mother who not only knows her son is dead, but who watches the last agonized moments of his life, as he is stripped, humiliated and savagely murdered on the basis of yet unfounded allegations! A death witnessed by a bloodthirsty mob!

Yes, I read all those comments about how the boys got "justice" and how they should have faced their studies, and how their parents failed to raise them... and all i see are people who by their very words, show they would happily have stood in the mob and egged the murderers on, inwardly or outwardly.

And i know that this kind of inhumanity will happen over and over again. Because there will always be people so intent on proving their rightness, that they fail to see the evil in their own souls. because only an evil man would see what was done here and say it is right.
