'How gunmen killed 24 at Dogondawa mosque'

Chief Imam of Dogodawa Community Mosque, Mahmud Mohammed, on Monday narrated how he hid himself in an abandoned tyre, watching how worshippers leaving the mosque were killed in Kaduna on Sunday.

Over 24 worshippers were reportedly killed while many were injured during the attack on mosque by suspected armed robbers at Dogodawa village in Birnin Gwari Local Government.

Mohammed said he saw over 100 heavily armed bandits shooting the worshippers.

“The killers were saying that they had come to make real their threat. They shot and killed even children, it was sad indeed,” he said.

A traditional title- holder of Danlawan Birnin Gwari, Alhaji Abdurauf, who blamed the police for the incident, said a governorship aspirant in the state, Alhaji Shuaibu Mikati, had earlier alerted the police to the threats to life and property in the area by robbers.

He said, “But nothing was done until the dawn attack on Sunday which has turned the entire area into deep sorrow and mourning.”

He said Mikati wrote a letter to the Inspector-General of Police, notifying him of the warning issued by unknown persons who had vowed to unleash terror on the area.

He said Mikati appealed to the police to upgrade the police post at Dogodawa to the status of a police station “but instead they gradually withdrew the six policemen that were stationed at the police post and that led to the closure of the police post”.

He also said four members of the vigilance group were identified by the gunmen and killed during the raid.

Meanwhile, Patrick Yakow has said will summon an emergency meeting of the state security council to strategised on how to drive away criminals from Birnin Gwari.

Frank@ na em papa did! On a serious note, Police are flattering left and right. For u to stop bandit, u must hunt & kill them, it will after that they won't come to Nigeria. The same goes to Boko. If u investigate very well, the bandit will be from Niger or Mali. It is about time Nigeria start putting physical barrier in the borders

It is not Jonathan's fault. It is THE GENOCIDAL BIAFRA WAR where over 2 MILLION BIAFRAN CHILDREN where starved to death by Awolowo's policy (war crime) that STILL HAUNTS NIGERIA. Imagine starving kids untill they die. There is no way that will go unpunished. It is just as brutal as the aluu kill every one is frowning at.

Punch Newspaper, as much as a recognised your right as an organisation to freedom of reportage, am of a school of thought which look aat your reports as an avenue to stir up ember of distrust and vengeance, as most of the contents in today's update were reported yesterday, dont get me wrong. What I actually mean is there are some news that requires no further publication except a positive update, (am not calling for ensorship here) which might be in this case the arrest of the perpetrators of this heinous crime or otherwise, you will be doing the bereaved families and friend much good than explain the circumstances and way of which they were killed. Thanks.

@Nick you are the same person disguise under another name please I just wonder why you change your name just to reply yourself. and I hate to say it but it's dumb people like you that can't contribute to Nigeria although I don't know your age but many times when you comment you just say something just to gain attention by attacking the president which I think is deliberate of you and not so right. and back to the topic, I think if the Nigeria government wishes to provide security and apprehending of these criminals rather than setting up stupid fruitless investigation wasting our money, they need to install security cameras that nobody will see its hiding place in the corners of Nigeria states because all these billions they are allocating as failed to apprehend evil doers after evil deeds.

@Tope Permit me to air my view concerning some burning national issues such as the Federal Polytechnic, Mubi massacre, fuel subsidy theft and lately the barbaric killing of four students of the University of Port Harcourt. To say the least, these are signs or pointers to leadership failure. I was reading The PUNCH edition of Monday, October 8, 2012,where the National Chairman of Peoples Democratic Party, Alhaji Bamanga Tukur, was quoted to have admonished Nigerians to be prayerful to surmount the insecurity and other challenges currently facing our country. To me it is not all about prayers, rather, our leaders should place premium on national interest. They should be patriotic, pragmatic and selfless.

THE NATION HAS LONG TURN TO WHERE THE DEVIL HIMSELF RESIDE

WITH HIS AGENTS OF DARKNESS AND THE QUESTION IS SIMPLE... WHY WOULDN'T THE DEVIL RESIDE IN A COUNTRY THAT HAS BEEN IN DARKNESS FOR AGES?? NO ELECTRICITY, NO LIGHTS WHERE ELSE WILL THE DEVIL CHOOSE TO RESIDE IF NOT SUCH A PLACE.

THE CRASHING OF ATOMS BACK TO THE BLACK HOLE SEEMS TO HAVE STARTED EFFECTIVELY FROM OUR COUNTRY, EVEN THOUGH PUNCH IS NOT HELPING MATTERS EITHER. REPEATING ALL THE JOURNAL THEY WROTE BEFORE TWISTING IT FROM EVERY ANGLE TO MAKE IT LOOK LIKE A NEW STORY. WHAT A DISAPPOINTMENT AND LACK OF PROFESSIONALISM. ANYWAY, NEITHER DID I BLAME PUNCH WHOLLY FOR THEIR BIT TO STAY ALOFT. GETTING FIRST HAND INFORMATION IN THIS COUNTRY CAN EVEN LEAD ONE TO HIS UNTIMELY DEATH BUT STILL, THEY COULD DO BETTER THAN THIS. IMAGINE THE INCIDENT IN ALUU WAS TOLD SO MANY UNCOUNTABLE TIMES MAKING HEADLINES ... TEKENA'S SISTER, BIRINGA'S FATHER, LLOYDS' MOTHER AND UGONNA'S FATHER AND VICE CHANCELLOR ALL THE SAME STORY PUBLISHED WITH DIFFERENTS HEADLINE.

NOW, THIS SHOOTINGS STORY WERE TOLD LAST TIME AND QUESTION IS WHY NOT DO A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION BEFORE TELLING US. MY BET IS THAT STORIES

WERE TOLD IN HALF TO HAVE ANOTHER STORY TO TELL TOMORROW. IS THAT IT??

THOSE WHO COMMIT DASTARDLY ACTS ARE JUST ALMOST IN SAME CATEGORY WITH THOSE WHO SELL UNRIPE INFORMATIONS. FOR THE FACT THAT YOUR NEWS ARE WIDELY READ DOES NOT GIVE YOU THE EDGE TO SELL US HALF BAKED NEWS.

MOTTO: DISCHARGE YOUR DUTY WITHOUT FEAR OR FAVOUR!!

The police are showing culpability in some of these heinous activities. The police should search within their own ranks to fish out unscrupulous elements and deal with them to forestall some of these unfortunate tragedies.WE CAN NOT CONTINUE THIS WAY! How can the police be informed of a threat and choose to do NOTHING about it? Will they bring the dead back to life now? What will be the justification for increased funding of the police force with no visible improvements in results or in the security situation nationwide? WHAT IS GOING ON?
