Policemen feared killed in shootout

Comfort Oseghale

Three policemen were feared killed on Friday when a gang of armed men tried to rob a first generation bank in Agbado area of Ogun State.

Eyewitness accounts said the armed men had earlier robbed a number of shops at Sharp Corner, Agbado before making an attempt on the bank.

However, a team of policemen from the Ayinla Division, who responded to a distress call, eventually arrived on the scene and engaged the robbers in a shootout.

The policemen reportedly lost their lives in the process.

It was, however, learnt that some of the robbers were eventually overwhelmed and arrested while the others escaped.

The Police Public Relations Officer in Ogun State, Mr. Muiyiwa Adejobi, when contacted, said, "There was a robbery at Sharp Corner area of Agbado; a number of shops were attacked and a lady's handbag was snatched.

"No attempt was made on any bank and no policeman was killed. A policeman sustained gunshot injuries and is responding to treatment. Four of the robbers were apprehended while one of them was killed."
