

24th June, 2013

Search this website...

Search

Home	AM Business	i-punch	Healthwise	News »	Politics	Business »	Sports	Opinion »	Metro	Feature »
Blogs	Jobs	Forum

You are here: Home / News / Court convicts 27 Ogun motorists, school proprietor dies

Court convicts 27 Ogun motorists, school proprietor dies

JUNE 21, 2013 BY SEGUN OLATUNJI, ABEOKUTA 1 COMMENT

A Magistrate's court in Isabo, Abeokuta, Ogun State on Thursday convicted 27 motorists for violating traffic laws in the state capital.

The court however gave the traffic offenders option of fine ranging from N2,000 to N10,000.

Magistrate Ayodele Akinyemi, convicted the motorists for driving vehicles with damaged windshields, fake driving licences, overloading, non-use of seat belts, over speeding, dangerous driving, and number plate violations.

The Federal Road Safety Corps Legal Officer, Mr. Usoma Enwereuzo, had told the court that the offenders were apprehended while violating traffic rules and regulations in different parts of the metropolis on Thursday.

Enwereuzo added that the offences committed by the motorists were punishable under the Corps Traffic Codes Laws and urged the court to sanction the motorists in accordance with the dictates of the laws.

The magistrate however cautioned and discharged three of the 30 traffic offenders arraigned before the court.

Meanwhile, the proprietor of a popular group of schools in Abeokuta, Dr. Folarin Dalley, and one unidentified person were killed in an auto crash at Onipepeye Village along the Abeokuta/Sagamu Expressway on Wednesday night.

Six other persons were also seriously injured in the accident.

The Head of Operations, Ogun State Command of the FRSC, Mrs. Cecilia Alao, said this while speaking with newsmen in Abeokuta on Thursday.

Alao said the crash, which involved a Toyota Camry marked Lagos AAA 181 AA, a Mitsubishi space wagon, marked Ogun LAR 55 XA, and a Honda car number plate Lagos KSF 224 AT, was caused by overspeeding.

You may also like -

ICPC opposes Lawan's bid to stay bribery proceedings

Traffic law difficult to enforce —LASTMA

Jonathan, Buhari, others grace Tinubu mother's Fiday

FG backs disparity in unity schools cut-off marks

Ogun merges security outfits to douse tension

Most Read Recent Comments Most Commented

Jonathan, Danjuma in closed-door meeting

Timilehin, boy slain by police, buried amid tears

NGF crisis: Jang seeks dismissal of Fashola's suit

Jonathan's loyalists may control new PDP NWC

Let there be light!

Columnists

Noble public servants of yesteryear

In recent years, the aura of honour and respectability attached to employment in public service has regrettably faded and is...

Read More

Glo Surfer Browsing

It's another smash hit from Glo!

0.05kobo per Mb.

Enjoy the lowest browsing data rate ever.

Unlimited

Roam
your money with
UBA Africard

UBA Africard UBA

4000 1234 5678 0910

Find out More

www.ubagroup.com Africa's global bank

More Stories in News

Poly students lock down Ikorodu road in protest

June 24th, 2013 / 4 Comments

Read Full Story

Nelson Mandela 'critically ill' in hospital

June 24th, 2013 / 6 Comments

Read Full Story

NGF crisis: Jang seeks dismissal of Fashola's suit

June 24th, 2013 / 94 Comments

Read Full Story