Groom, relatives die in Edo crash

JUNE 25, 2013 BY JAMES AZANIA, BENIN 7 COMMENTS

An accident on Monday claimed the lives of a groom and three of his relatives, along the Benin-Auchi highway.

The accident, which occurred around Irukekpen, in Esan West Local Government Area of Edo State, resulted in the death of the groom, his grandmother, uncle and the uncle's wife.

They were on their way to Uromi, in Esan North East Local Government Area for the wedding introduction.

It was learnt that the Toyota Siena bus, in which they were travelling, had a head-on collision with heavy duty truck belonging to Sentraco Construcion Company.

At the time of filing this report, two of the bodies were still trapped under the truck, while corpses of the two others had been taken away to the morgue.

Head of Operation, Irukekpen Unit Command of the Federal Road Safety Corps, Mr. John Omokandugba, said the accident was caused by dangerous overtaking by the Toyota bus.

He said, "Four persons including two men and two women, who were occupants of the Toyota Siena, with registration number USL 111 AE, died in the accident."

Omokandugba said the truck loaded sand dust from Auchi, and was heading for Elele, in the accident occurred.

He said, "The accident was as a result of speeding. The light rain showers equally contribute

It has always been said that 'marriage period' is supposed to be a period of Solemnization, Godly & Timely preparation, and not giving chance for Haste, Skill or Youthfull exuberance! It's a great calamity indeed!! May God have mercy on their Soul, amen.
