

are conscious of the need for basic attitudinal reorientation towards the

the hats to the school at a ceremony attended by the President and some top government officials.

Aluko; and Minister of Niger Delta Ministry, Mr. Peter Orubebe.

Since then, the event

In a civilised country, she should be answering questions now."

Post from @

Six killed, 21 injured in Ogun multiple crash

ACCIDENT

SIX unidentified people have been confirmed dead, while 21 others were injured in a multiple accident that occurred on the Abeokuta-Lagos Expressway on Friday, the News Agency of Nigeria reports.

The Itori Unit Commander of the FRSC, Mr. Fatai Bakare, who confirmed the incident on Saturday, told journalists that the accident occurred at Osunpori Village, near Wasinmi in the Ewekoro Local Government Area of Ogun.

He said the accident, involving three vehicles occurred around 11.45pm.

Bakare said an Iveco truck with registration number Lagos GGE 200 XC, a Mazda pick-up van (XA 626 AAW) and a Nissan pick-up van marked Lagos XZ 19 EKY were involved in the accident.

The unit commander said 27 persons, comprising 20 males and seven females were involved in the crash.

"One of the drivers lost control of his vehicle, he rammed into the other and there was a serious situation afterwards.

"Those who died far include two males and four females, while 21 others, made up of 18 men and three women sustained varying degrees of injuries."

Bakare said the corpses had been deposited at the morgue of the General Hospital in Ifo, near Abeokuta.

He said those injured in the crash were also being taken care of at the same hospital.