Landslide kills four in Katsina

NOVEMBER 15, 2013 BY AGENCY REPORTER LEAVE A COMMENTLike 4 g+1

Four persons, including three children were killed on Thursday by a landslide at an excavation site in Funtawa village, Rimi Local Government Area of Katsina State.

Eyewitnesses told the News Agency of Nigeria that the incident occurred at about 10.30am.

The victims include Malam Maharazu, 20; Ma'aruf Mohammed, 12; Kabiru Abdullahi, 8; and Haliru Mohammed, 7.

They said after the incident, people besieged the site to rescue the victims, who were brought out dead.

The secretary of the local government council, Alhaji Garba Lawal, confirmed the incident and said that it took the rescuers three hours to recover the bodies of the victims.

Lawal said the deceased were taken to their families for burial in accordance with Islamic injunction.

He said the Caretaker Committee Chairman of the council, Alhaji Nasiru Iyatawa, had visited the families of the deceased to commiserate with them.
