One person was confirmed dead on Sunday in an auto accident at Wasinmi village, along the Papalanto-Ilaro Road in Yewa South Local Government Area of Ogun State.

Two other persons were also said to be critically injured in the accident, which involved a Mazda passenger bus marked, LAGOS CZ 288 EKY, and a cement truck with number plate, LAGOS CD 208 LKJ.

Confirming the accident, the Ilori Unit Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps, Mr. Fatai Bakare, explained that only three persons were involved in the crash.

Bakare said the two other occupants of the bus, who were injured, were on the danger list.

He said the crash occurred when the driver of the truck lost control of the vehicle and rammed into the oncoming passenger bus.

The FRSC boss also told journalists that the injured persons were being treated, while the corpse of the deceased was being recovered.
