

The Punch – Nigeria's Most Widely Read Newspaper

Cult clash claims two in Ogun

Barely three days after three people suspected to be members of secret cults were reportedly killed in Ijebu-Ode, Ogun State, there was another clash on Sunday night, that claimed two lives.

Our correspondent gathered that a member of the National Union of Road Transport Workers identified as one Mr. Razaq (aka Aro) was shot dead at his residence in Oketun Street, Itantebo area of the town.

The deceased, sources alleged was a member of the Eiye cult.

The other victim, our correspondent further gathered was beheaded at Ajegunle Ijada area and his corpse was taken away.

It will be recalled that members of Eiye and Axe cults in the town had been having a running battle , which had led to some deaths in the last few months.

The Police Public Relations Officer, Ogun State command, Mr. Muyiwa Adejobi, confirmed the sad incident saying the incident claimed only one life.

Copyright © 2014 The Punch – Nigeria's Most Widely Read Newspaper