The police on Friday arrested 22 members of rival youth groups that clashed in Maitubi area of Minna, the Niger State capital.

The restive youths were said to have invaded Angwan Rogo area from Gbedeyin over the killing of one of their colleagues in a clash last week.

Saturday PUNCH learnt that the hoodlums, armed with dangerous weapons, invaded that part of the town and caused panic.

The hoodlums allegedly killed a man who was rushing his wife to the hospital for delivery.

The wife was delivered of a baby some minutes after the killing of her husband.

The police spokesperson, Mr. Richard Oguche, confirmed the incident, adding that normalcy had returned to the area.

Oguche also confirmed the arrest of one person in connection with the killing of a resident last week by the hoodlums.

He said that the police were on top of the situation.
