Femi Makinde, Osogbo

A student and driver of the Osun State University were killed on Friday in an automobile accident during an excursion embarked upon by students of History Department of the university.

Our correspondent gathered that the students, who were going to a water fall in Okeella, in Osun State on excursion were involved in the accident on their way to the site.

A student told our correspondent that the accident was caused by break failure.

The driver whose name has yet to be ascertained as of the time of filing this report was said to have died on the spot while a student and a lecturer were also injured.

There were conflicting reports as some students said one of the students on board the ill-fated bus and a lecturer were critically injured but other said apart from the driver who died, others occupants of the bus only sustained bruises.

Those who sustained injuries in the crash were said to have been taken to a hospital in Ikirun for treatment but another said they were eventually brought to Osogbo, the state capital.
