A man, Ismaila Akuki, who resided in Doma, Doma Local Government of Nasarawa State has been beheaded by suspected ritual killers.

SUNDAY PUNCH learnt that Akuki, 35, had been suffering from mental illness before he was killed on Thursday night.

Further findings also indicated that the killing of innocent persons in Doma by unknown persons had become persistent and of concern to the inhabitants of the area.

The chairman Doma Local Government Area, Mr. Henry Omake, who paid a visit to the family of the deceased, described the act as barbaric and unacceptable.

The chairman vowed to ensure that the perpetrators of such acts in the area were brought to book and to prevent a future occurrence.

When contacted, the Public not aware of the incident, but
