

January 17, 2015

Gombe explosion

Three days after being rocked by bomb explosion, a suicide bomber blew up himself on Friday night in Arawa, Gombe State, killing around 15 people.

An eyewitness who spoke with online newspaper, thecable.ng, said the bomber struck around 8pm.

He said, "That area is like a small market where people usually gather or pass en route to their houses.

"It is a crowded area. More than 15 people are said to have died and lots of people are injured. Right now, everyone is afraid. We no longer feel safe."

It is the fourth time in 16 days that the North-East state would be suicide-bombed.