JUNE 13, 2015 : JUDE OWUAMANAM 0 COMMENTS

Four people were killed on Friday in Rakung village of Barakin Ladi Local Government Area of Plateau State when some unknown gunmen ambushed them on their way home after an outing.

Our correspondent gathered that the incident happened at about 10 am on Friday.

Executive Director of Stefanos Foundation, Mr. Mark Lipdo, said that the killing of innocent villagers by unknown gunmen in Plateau State has continued because nobody had been arrested and prosecuted.

He identified the victims as Pam Babel, Salome Pam, Luka Gyang and Joy Toma.

He called on security agencies to intensify efforts to arrest and prosecute perpetrators of the dastardly act to serve as a deterrent to others.

Polices Public Relations Officer, DSP Emmanuel Abuh, who confirmed the incident said that no arrests have been made.

Abuh said that the police are searching for the unknown gunmen and would stop at noting to ensure that justice is done.
