

Six killed in accident

Nosa Akenzua, Asaba.

A trailer rammed into a commercial bus on Tuesday, killing six of the occupants of the bus. Two babies were, however, said to have survived in the accident, which occurred around the mechanic village along the Asaba-Benin Expressway.

An eyewitness, Mary Oboh, said that the commercial bus with number plate, JJU526KK, was returning from Benin, Edo State, when the incident occurred.

It was gathered that an angry mob wanted to set the trailer ablaze, but for the intervention of policemen.

The state Federal Road Safety Corps Sector Commander, Rindom Kunven, said, "The trailer driver lost control and rammed into the commercial bus, killing all the occupants, except two babies."

carried out at the officials of the L Environmental a Offences (Enfo
Unit.

The official reportedly came bulldozers, were earlier issued a ultimatum to the
leave the area.

However, son who spoke with Metro, claimed
were given only f

Our correspon
got to the sce
demolition at a
observed that th
the traders were
with the building