

Five EKSU students die in auto crash

July 11, 2016

Tweet

•An accident scene File copy

Tunde Odesola

Five students of the Ekiti State University were killed in an auto accident which occurred along the Iworoko Road, Ekiti, leading to the institution on Monday evening.

A source disclosed to our correspondent that the students were in a Lexus saloon car and were coming from the town to the university when the accident occurred.

The accident occurred a few meters to the main gate of the institution.

The identities of the students could not be ascertained as of the time of filing this report.

An unconfirmed source said that the driver of the car bearing the students had a head-on collision with an oncoming bus.

Police Public Relations Officer, Ekiti State Command, Alberto Adeyemi, who confirmed the incident, explained that the corpses of the deceased had been deposited at a mortuary.