

A civil servant in the state, who gave his name as Mustapha, added that a teacher died of cardiac arrest.

Mustapha said, "A woman was travelling to collect some percentage of her December salary in Asa where she was teaching when she was crushed to death by a commercial motorcyclist.