

Nothing demonstrates the flat footedness of the security agencies than the fact that their comrades are also being killed: nine Department of State Services officials were ambushed and murdered in Arepo, Ogun State, by pipeline hoodlums a year ago and their corpses are yet to be recovered; kidnappers who abducted two Chinese technicians in Ondo State killed their two police guards.