

“In Yele, the assailants killed three people from the Shekau camp, injured one and took one with them, while several others were killed in Arafa,” he told AFP on the telephone from the state capital, Maiduguri.

The attack, he said, prompted residents of Arafa to flee the area.