

Idris Wada, on Wednesday expressed his resolve to support Governor Yahaya Bello just as he faulted the

Eight die in Enugu road crash

Ihuoma Chiedozie, Enugu

NO fewer than eight persons have been confirmed dead in a car crash in Enugu State.

The accident occurred along the Enugu/Port Harcourt Expressway, by the University of Nigeria Teaching Hospital junction, at Ituku-Ozalla.

It was gathered that a commercial transit vehicle, with Akwa-Ibom registration number, KTD 58 LG, which was conveying passengers to Aba, in Abia State, from a prayer centre in the Ezeagu area of Enugu, lost control and veered into the bush.

The vehicle reportedly somersaulted several times, leaving eight persons dead.

The spokesman for the Enugu State Police Command, Mr. Ebere Amaraizu, who confirmed the development, named the driver of the vehicle as one Kenneth Nwigwe, of Enugu-Ukwu in Anambra State.

The driver survived alongside 12 other passengers.

It was gathered that the survivors sustained varying degrees of injuries.

judgm
landlor
sees th
dark",
opposi

He
against worldw
proud
the m polity s
conscie
of men

His
in a s
Comm
Phrank
was journa

The
in par
the Ap
an en

Rece

Kam

A Sen
AChi
has ad
exporti
and t
agricult
out of r

The Babalol
said th
Africa t
in the a

He
in Ad
investit
of the N