

Communal clash

PETER DADA

ONE person identified as Romans Arena was reportedly killed in a communal clash between two communities, Obe Rewole and Obe Enikanseku, in Ilaje Local Government Area of Ondo State on Saturday.

According to a source, some members of the communities engaged in a business deal which later led to a misunderstanding and eventually, to a free-for-all.

The source noted that Arena, who hailed from Obe Rewole, was hacked to death and his body thrown into a river.

Angered by the killing, youths from Obe Rewoye were alleged to have attacked Obe Enikanseku, setting many houses ablaze.

When contacted the Police Public Relations Officer of the Ondo State Police Command, Femi Joseph, confirmed the incident.

He said, "It's a murder case. We have begun investigation."

Joseph added that a team of policemen had been drafted to the area to prevent further breakdown of law and order in the two communities.
