Truck crushes two Kogi poly students to death

Gbenga Odogun, Lokoja

A truck belonging to the Dangote Group on Thursday crushed to death two students of Kogi State Polytechnic, who were riding on a motorcycle.

The victims, Caleb Idakwo and Prosper Ojodale, until their deaths, were active members of the United Evangelical Church in Lokoja, the state capital.

Pastor of the church, Samson Akor, while confirming their deaths, said they were returning from the Koton Karfe area of the city, where they had taken agricultural inputs for their farms when the incident occurred.

He said the victims died after being taken to five different hospitals, including government-owned health facilities where doctors were said to be on strike.

Police Public Relations Officer in the state, William Ayah, while confirming the incident, said investigation was ongoing to determine the cause of the accident.
