About 24 persons lost their lives in an accident involving an articulated vehicle along the Tsamiya-Bagudo Road in Kebbi State.

Sole Administrator of Bagudo Local Government Area, Abubakar Zagga, told the News Agency of Nigeria that the accident occurred on Thursday night.

He explained that the accident involved mostly traders from Tsamiya, a border town with Benin Republic.

He said that the traders were on their way to Lagos when the incident occurred, adding that those injured were currently receiving treatment in a hospital.
